The problem with socialism is it replaces visionary entrepreneurs with bureaucrats.

I will not be making fun of our beloved AOC and her mental prowess, but rather, illustrate how even "She, a bartender," was able to rise to the top in entrepreneurial fashion and then crash to become less than, a mediocre bureaucrat.

AOC (yes, I know she was recruited) sees a Democrat incumbent in her district that has lost touch with his voters and with the help of her handlers, executes a brilliant social media strategy to win the primary, knowing that in her district, the primary winner goes to Congress.

She was feted as a political genius but all she really did, was brilliantly execute an entrepreneurial game plan.

- 1) Find a need
- 2) Notice that the market leader has become vulnerable

3) Put a team together

4) Raise capital

5) Execute flawlessly

She wins and is then "Inaugurated" to Congress where she becomes a "Bureaucrat."

Name one legislative accomplishment that she has spearheaded that has become law?

She proposes a Green New Deal, based on: The world will end in 12 years, and then is forced to say: "I did not really mean 12 years"

In short, as a bureaucrat she has accomplished "NOTHING" except tweet and give speeches.

In the course of 2 months AOC went FROM :

An accomplished entrepreneur who grabbed a seat in Congress

TO : A do nothing bureaucrat.

That is the problem with socialism
