

If We Can Explain Immigration,
We Can Win 100% of the Time

I will get more personal than usual.

Today , my wonderful wife, Dr. Marcia Cid-Brito a retired Brazilian physician, became a proud American citizen and immediately registered as a Trump supporting Republican.

We have been astonished, (but not surprised due to mainstream media) at the questions she has been asked on the journey from tourist visa, to green card, to citizen.

Here are some examples:-

Typical CNN Viewer: Are you afraid that Donald Trump will throw all the immigrants out of the country?

Marcia: Why should I be afraid? Everything I did was 100% legal. Besides, the immigration authorities have treated me better under Trump than under Obama.

Typical CNN Viewer: You better become a citizen quick. Before Trump changes the rules.

Marcia: Trump has not changed any rules to the legal immigration system.

Typical CNN Viewer: Trump said they are going to go after immigrants to pay back any benefits they received from the government.

Marcia: Every paper my husband and I signed said that I am forbidden to access any government benefits. In fact, to get a green card we had to show significant financial assets to prove I would not be a burden to the American taxpayer.

Typical CNN Viewer: But that MONSTER puts children in cages.

Marcia: (Priceless response) So does every other country when you enter illegally. Immigrants with the proper visa will never be separated or put in cages.

Typical CNN Viewer: Why do you want to become a United States citizen?

Marcia: As a green card holder I am a guest in this country. As a citizen I am a member of the family with FULL rights and responsibilities. I love my country Brazil. But the United States is still the best country in the entire world

If you have never been to a naturalization ceremony, I suggest you attend one. They are open to the public.

I am so proud of my American wife
