

How Long Does It Take To Destroy America?

If you would've asked me in January how long it would take to turn the United States into a Venezuela cesspool, I would have said 10-20 years.

After the last 3 months, my answer has changed: "6 months to 1 year"

Shutting down the country due to a virus with a 99% survivability rate? 40 million unemployed? Blue State governors trying to keep the states shut down to help beat an incumbent president?

Follow this with a heinous murder captured on videotape and shown to every person in America that has been locked away in their homes for 3 months. Add to this the ANTIFA game plan of inciting riots during a time of turmoil, and America was looking at the brink of demise.

My job is to show you how to use the, "new normal" to wake up the sleeping masses and get them to vote the right way on election day.

Most people have simple needs: A roof, food, health, educate children, feel safe in the home, and a reason to wake up.

Remember, you must ask the right question of the person that you are speaking with. If they are retired, living on Medicare, pension and Social Security your question is: "If the US economy crumbles, what guarantee do you have you will be receiving your retirement income?"

Listen for the answer before asking the next question. "You can try: "6 months ago if I told you that we would be ordered by the government to stay home and not leave the house for 6 months you would think I'm crazy? Why is it crazy to think your Social Security and Medicare will stop?"

If they are working people, ask them: "How long can the government pay you not to work, if no one else is working either?"

"Do you think after the election, your newly elected politicians will care if you have enough to eat?"

Another question: "if I told you in December that your children would be home from school for 6 months, and there was nothing you could do about it..... Would you think I was crazy?"

Final question..... "If I told you a month ago, that Americans would riot and burn down their own communities and celebrities would give millions of dollars to bail the looters out of jail, but nothing to rebuild businesses, would you believe me?"

Fear will drive the vote, if we explain it right.
