

This Election Everyone Picks a Side

In previous elections, voters chose the party, or maybe the person to represent them.

This election is totally different. Voters must pick “A SIDE.”

Our side supports the police, but also supports prosecuting them when they break the law that they are sworn to uphold.

Their side, supports criminals and wants no police whatsoever. They applaud when police are shot or assaulted.

Choose your side..... That simple

Very interesting #WALK-A-WAY post today. Poster says “In my family supporting your political party is like supporting your sports team. You support them through good times and bad.”

So the walkway poster says, “It makes sense, except the players are able to switch teams, so why not the fans?”

The Democrat Media is attacking Florida Gov. DeSantis, for opening Florida totally, and severely limiting local governments from enacting their own COVID rules.

As Florida goes into tourist season, the governor asked real doctors, not government bureaucrat doctors what he should do. They said that lockdowns do not work. All it does is delay the disease from spreading. We cannot wait out COVID, when people finally go out to businesses, to schools, or to life, the COVID will be transmitted. We can not allow the cure to be worse than the disease.

“But COVID has a very high Florida death rate screams the press.”

They missed the fact that Florida is number 3 in population and number 1 in senior citizens, and ALWAYS has the second-highest deaths per year in the United States. So much for New York Times statistics.

And the governor has finally allowed family members to go into nursing homes. This has been the biggest travesty of COVID. Our venerable seniors, sitting in these miserable places, just wanting to see loved ones, and being denied.

Many will tell you that they would pray for death, except proper funerals are not allowed.

While Gov. Cuomo and other Democrats look for ways to say NO, Republican governors understand that businesses must open, and Americans must live.

And yet, if someone does not want to leave their house, no one is forcing them.

Final word..... For those that want socialism. They want the government to take care of all their needs. Remind them that the Democrats have refused to give them any aid because it might make Pres. Trump look good.

Imagine....socialism is so good, that it can be STOPPED with no notice if those in power decide.
