In some states, the Libertarian vote could have swung the election, and also a number of Republicans / Conservatives did not support Trump because he was not “fiscally responsible.”

How do Liberals vote?

Vote blue no matter who! No matter what!

How to Conservatives vote? Examine voting records and stick it to RINOs.

Who is in total control of the federal government?

“Vote blue no matter who”

What are Republicans doing?
Discussing 2022.

Someone please explain to me, why Fiscal Conservatives /Libertarians are happier with Democrats exploding the budget in ridiculous proportions, compared with Republicans who may be growing the budget, but not as fast?

When Obama came in, he immediately passed a stimulus without Republican support. Just like Joe Biden did.

Bush 45’s first major legislation was Ted Kennedy’s “No Child Left behind”.

Donald Trump waited until December 22, 2017 before getting his tax cuts without Democrat support.

And yet, Libertarians and Conservatives still thought the Democrats were better for the national debt.

If you have not figured out, the average American still does not care about debts and deficits. When Congressional Budget Chairman, Paul Ryan was tapped to run as Mitt Romney’s VP, the media said: “now we’re going to have serious conversations about the budget”

The results of 2012 proved that America is not yet ready to care about the budget. Please learn this, and remember that in politics: “Winning is everything.”

Also the difference between Biden and Trump. Trump exploded the economy , and Biden is imploding the economy. Which do you think will be better for America’s economic health and long tern deficit reduction?
