

Why Overturning Roe Would Destroy America?

Let me start by reminding our Mitch McConnell haters, that Mitch single-handedly kept Merrick Garland off the Supreme Court. Garland has ruled that mother's speaking at school board meetings are domestic terrorist. Imagine a lifetime appointment where his opinion was indisputable law.

McConnell is not likable, but he does know how to play the Senate game.

On to Roe.

Why was Donald Trump elected president? Because the Supreme Court solved the gay marriage issue, legalizing gay marriage before the 2016 election.

Had gay marriage been a ballot issue, Trump would have lost. Big time.

I was honored last week to attend the Florida Right to Life banquet, to support the work of those heroes fighting for the unborn.

We heard from an appellate attorney, who said that the dream of overturning Roe, may happen in the Dobbs case being heard by the Supreme Court in December.

I quickly extrapolated the consequences of legal victory in our current political climate, and became frightened beyond belief.

I know overturning Roe, is a 50 year quest. And I truly understand the motives behind it.

But let's look at the political reality of a decision overturning the right to abortion and the right to privacy, which was the basis for Roe. I also agree that Roe was wrongly decided.

Even so:

Every woman of childbearing age right now, was born into a constitutional right of choice. Many of these women choose life, BUT, would be appalled if that constitutional right were taken away from them.

So what would happen 24 hours after Roe is overturned?

The House will pass a bill making abortion legal, and removing every restriction created by the states.

The Senate will either get 10 Republicans to advance the bill or Manchin and Sinema will vote to end the filibuster, and the Republicans will NOT be needed.

Not only will there be more abortions, but HR 1, making it impossible for Republicans to ever win an election again will pass, as well as a Green New Deal, laws mandating critical race theory will be passed, capitalism destroyed and America ruined forever.

And without the right to privacy, how do you argue against vaccination mandates, vaccine passports, or any other issues that most Americans are starting to agree with. These privacy rights will be eliminated.

The left has gone so crazy, they will abort babies after birth, (we call this infanticide or homicide) and most Americans are horrified. Most Americans can accept abortion restrictions at viability. Many can accept abortion bans with a detectable heartbeat.

Imagine how the biased abortion loving press will treat the story. If you think the unvaccinated are pariahs, just wait until the press makes the story about your right to buy condoms and use them (the right to privacy did not start with abortion, it started with contraception)

So please, I know you can taste victory, but sometimes the devil looks like he is doing the Lords work, when in reality the devil is setting the devil up for success.
