

Does OMICRON Kill Trump for 24?

Happy New Year

Although many Republicans think the vaccine is poison, Trump's 2024 campaign would be "I created the vaccine and saved millions of lives"

Problem is, the vaccine has little effect on Omicron. If the current wave becomes the end of the pandemic, Liberals who are panicking may only remember the ineffective vaccine.

Remember, Biden/Harris will not be on the ballot, so all COVID stats will be blamed on Trump.

This is unbelievable... Hospitals that fired unvaccinated employees, will now allow people that are currently COVID POSITIVE to work in hospital with patients because staffing has become so difficult.

Only in Blue America.

On January 1st a law signed by President Trump took effect banning surprise billing for out-of-network providers in emergency situations.

This will be very beneficial for consumers. Trump-haters claimed that the vote was bipartisan and any administration could have done it, but as usual "ONLY TRUMP DID IT"

This does not mean you can freely go to out-of-network providers. This just protects you in real emergencies. (Feel free to call me at 855-561-0500 with questions)

One of the newspaper advice columnists was asked:

My 6-year-old granddaughter is not vaccinated. Both her parents are vaccinated. I am upset and afraid.

How do I approach this?
signed "Frightened"

The columnist gave the wrong answer.

The only proper answer is:

"The fact that the parents are vaccinated means they are not against vaccines. You should assume they have studied the issue and determined the risk versus reward does not warrant the vaccination of a 6-year-old."

Do you believe there any facts that you possess that they do not have?

Lady at testing site : Why are these lines so long?

Reporter: Why are you online?

Lady: To make sure I do not have COVID.

New York's numbers are out of control and the people are terrified

They were told vaccinate everybody and everyone will be safe. NOT TRUE

That is why DeSantis and other Republican governors told the truth. That is why we have businesses as usual in red states.

Red State governors said there is no herd immunity, regardless of Fauci's lies. Blue State voters are beginning to realize they were right.
