

Putting Liberals on Defense That 2020 Election Was Stolen

Our side has had no luck breaking through the Liberal wall that the 2020 election was legitimate and anyone that argues is an unpatriotic conspiracy nut.

Let's change that.

Them: You probably think the 2020 election was stolen don't you?

US: I assume your argument is that 80 courts have thrown out the various cases filed? Correct?

THEM: Yeah you can't argue with so many courts.

US: So you support segregated schools? Slavery? Taking Americans out of their homes and putting them in concentration camps? Prohibiting gay marriage? And separate bathrooms for Blacks?

THEM: What are you talking about? Of course I am against all those.

US: For decades the courts dismissed these cases because the laws allowed those actions.

What the media never explained was that the courts did not have a legal remedy for the irregularities. You can prove 50 dead people voted. But there was no way you can prove that they voted for Joe Biden? This is because once the ballot is accepted, it is untraceable because America mandates the secret ballot. Once the ballots is counted there is no way to see who cast the ballot.

US: Bottom line. We cannot prove in court the 2020 election was rigged, but you cannot prove in court that it was legitimate.

US: BTW- do you know who certifies the vote count? Partisan election officials. Now what do you have to say?

As I have said all along, media censorship is why Joe Biden is an illegitimate president.

Had the Hunter Biden story come out, Biden would have lost.

When the media conspires to hide the news, they have given up their First Amendment protections. The founders granted the media special powers because they were entrusted to shed a light on the darkness of government.

South Korea which has had very little COVID the entire time has seen an incredible spike in cases. Some days 1% of the population reports new cases.

I'm sure there is no definitive answer yet as to why, my guess would be that eventually a variant mutates to where vaccines have almost no effect on breakthrough cases.

Fauci came out of witness protection, to tell us lockdowns will happen again, but I think so many people were infected with Omicron that there is now a large immunity segment. Time will tell.

The main difference between Trump and Biden on COVID?

Trump tried to make every vaccine, treatment and therapeutic available to the American public and give the public choices. Biden?....Vaccine or die.

Had Trump been inaugurated for his 2nd term, the COVID death count would be much lower than Joe Biden's.

I have been asked to give the simplest explanation regarding differences of dealing with men and dealing with women.

Very simple: "When a man says he does not care.... He means it. When a woman says she does not care..... She is lying."

Press: This is all about Putin.

NO: It is about Joe Biden. Any Russian leader would do the same thing in the face of such a weak US President

Unless there is a supermajority, every non-officeholder running for a legislative seat should be asked the following 2 questions.

1) If you are elected what is most important legislation you will get passed in your first term?

2) Which agenda item that is important to you, are you willing to give up to secure the votes to pass your most important legislation?

Make them answer this question. If their bill had consensus it would have already been passed. You need to see if they know how to properly compromise.
