

Does Anyone Still Believe Biden Is Not Cognitively Impaired?

Falling off a bicycle standing still? That was the President of the United States over the weekend. Can anyone deny that he is cognitively impaired?

If they do, tell them to watch the video again

Sometimes GOP activists are the greatest enemy.

Gov. DeSantis and Gov Abbott are only effective because they have large majorities and the Democrats cannot do anything to stop them.

Remember when the Democrats ran away from Texas to avoid passing election integrity laws.

The GOP activists greatest refrain: "Primary The RINO"

The activists mean well but I don't get it?

Primary the Rino only works in a deep red area. Any purple or blue area "Primary The RINO" usually loses the seat. The Republican representative occasionally votes against GOP ideology because the district is not deep red. Areas Trump lost by 10% plus. Every once in a while you have to give your constituents something or they will vote you out

God bless our activists.... If a congressman proposes legislation that cannot pass but he locks up a large campaign contribution ... Someone without a chance will primary him or her

Where has the stupidity gotten us? We should have learned from Georgia, when we don't support the Republican the Democrat wins and that is a vote for the enemy.

So please, before you "Primary The RINO" ask governors and your legislative leaders how important the seat is to their agenda. Don't go campaigning for DeSantis if you cost him a supermajority.

How can a popular representative in a purple district lose a seat to a nobody? Because if there's no top of the ticket primary turnout, will be very small and a handful of activist voters could select the challenger because they do not understand "having the ability to win"

Elon Musk may talk about DeSantis for 2024, but our job as party leadership is to focus only on 2022 midterms. Many a playoff game has been lost because the team looked past their current opponent to the finals.

There is no such thing as an election in the bag. The only race that matters is 2022.

Health insurance news. Democrats are panicking. The heavy subsidies that were passed in March 2021 expire in 2022 which means: October will see huge rate increases (over 50%) being sent to voters.

So far Joe Manchin is blocking passage for the Democrats

When asked about Elon Musk's endorsement for 2024, Gov. DeSantis gave the perfect answer:

"I am focused only on 2022, but I welcome all African-American support"

Latest Democrat deflection: Oil companies have record profits, that is why the price of gas is so high.

Your response: Deduct the profit from the price of gasoline, and what will that bring the price of gas down to? I'm not going to tell you. Make them do the work.

Biden-flation is taking its' toll on seniors. Many on fixed incomes cannot make ends meet. They may now qualify for various "Extra Help" programs through Medicare and Medicare Savings Programs. As a Medicare agent I help seniors all over the country see if they qualify for extra benefits. They do not pay for this service. Please pass along my phone number and have them call.

With Biden-Inflation, we know employee health insurance costs will explode in the next few years.
