

Be Ready for Children in Cages - 2022 Edition

Remember when the media made the story about “children in cages at the border” under Trump? Our response? Obama did it first.

Then we blamed it on a court order

The facts made no difference the optics were horrible.

As I warned, the next step in the abortion fight will be “OPTICS.” If the Republican side is not careful the media spinning of the optics will cost seats, both state and federal offices.

Let’s use a recent story of a 10-year-old pregnant rape victim in Brazil that went to court to get an abortion which would be legal under Brazilian law. It seems the judge and prosecutor most likely were pro-life and separated the girl from the parents and kept asking her questions, such as: “don’t you want the baby to have a chance at life?” “You don’t want the baby to die a painful death? Do you?”

Imagine asking this to a 10-year-old rape victim who believes in Santa Claus and the Easter Bunny.

Which side looks more rational in this narrative? Pro-abortion or pro-life?

We have the same story in the United States. A 10-year-old rape victim was denied an abortion in Ohio because they found out too late. The parents are looking to take her to another state.

The Press asked South Dakota, Gov. Christie Noem her opinion, and only because she is so experienced with the MSM, was she able to answer the question without giving the soundbite that will hurt Republicans. Other Republican leaders will not be so nuanced in front of the cameras.

America may be pro-life, but what happens if a 10-year-old dies having a forced birth?

Last month I asked the question: “If the life of the mother and baby are equal then the doctors have to flip a coin if they need to decide between saving the mother’s life or the baby’s.”

If the mother of five dies because the coin came up: HEADS, the media will destroy the pro-life movement.

Remember, the media is looking for the story that will put Roe back on the books and they have already indicated they have no intent to be fair in their reporting

I wrote before Roe was overturned that should it happen after 49 years, do not overestimate the mandate. If the story becomes: forcing 10-year-old rape victims to have babies, 2022 will become a bloodbath for Republicans not Democrats.

The media is taking a victory lap because they admit they renamed the Florida “Parental Rights in Education Law” to “Don’t Say Gay” and everyone ran with it.

Folks we must fight fire with fire. When you talk about this law call it “Stop Promoting Pedophilia in Kindergarten Law.” Make the media defend their reporting.

Can Blue states like New York be flipped?

Yes, but running commercials will not do it.

Train an Army of black youth and older residents to go into the community and talk about what Democrats do to Blacks. How Democrats keep Blacks down. How Democrats make it impossible for Blacks to live and prosper.

How Democrats cause crime in black neighborhoods.

Fill the streets with 500-1000 fully trained campaign workers in a black community and see the difference.

The training must focus on quality of life issues not constitutional issues which Republicans are famous for.

Keep it simple and keep it local
