

It's Official...Biden is Illegitimate President

The Wisconsin Supreme Court ruled that the ballot boxes in 2020 were illegal. But they cannot change the results of the election. "ILLEGITIMATE" was a word used in the decision.

So remember, "The "BIG LIE "is not Trump saying the election was stolen. The big lie is MSM repeating "there was NO evidence that the 2020 election was not conducted fairly."

Plenty of evidence, maybe not enough to flip the election because we don't know the standard required to be met.

Remember the Pennsylvania Supreme Court agreed with the lower court judge that the changes made for the Pennsylvania election were illegal, but the court said we are not getting involved because it's too late.

Sounds like a lot more than "no evidence" to me

If a teacher needs the validation of a seven-year-old about his/her/they/them sexual lifestyle, the teacher needs to be in jail and not a classroom.-

The greatest threat to democracy was the January 6th insurrection. What would have happened had the courts declared Donald Trump the winner shortly after the election?

The George Floyd riots would have looked like a church social.

Don't say Trump won 2020. The other side will pay no attention to you.

Present Joe Biden as an illegitimate president. They will ask if you're saying Donald Trump won? ANSWER- NO, not saying Trump won, just saying the election was illegitimate. This is what the evidence is now pointing to.

The director of the Lightyear movie does not understand why the public is angry at it?

It's just a movie and there are very few movies coming out this summer.

The fact that he does not get it. Not understand when you work with Disney that declares war on its customers be prepared for a backlash

Tom Cotton agrees with Alan Huber (ME). I have stated that a 60 Republican Senate is possible in 2024 and Cotton agrees. After midterms, we can discuss what will it take to win so many Senate seats

When you are debating liberals that tell you that sex and gender are not the same. Ask the following: "What piece of technology has been developed in the last 10 years that conclusively tells us that 1 million years of evolution is wrong and is now definitive proof sex and gender are not the same.

Follow-up- do you have the results of the technology studies?

Last week I mentioned the 10-year-old rape victim in Brazil needs an abortion and had court issues denying her this option. That story is a true story. I then mentioned the Ohio story, very similar and that story has not been verified. However, the Ohio Atty. Gen. says that the 10-year-old girl was pregnant by rape, she would be able to get abortion Ohio.

This is telling us that our elected representatives Post-Roe have realized that all or nothing will not work. They see political quicksand as well as legal issues and will avoid them both.

Candidates: if you cannot explain your position on an issue quickly and easily in 15 seconds or so, don't talk about it or make it simpler.

The voters have no time for nuance, they want to know that you were going to help them because they are hurting.
