

Dylan Mulvaney Is Not the Problem

I have a lot of respect for Dylan Mulvaney. He is a true capitalist. He proves that if you have an idea in America that people are willing to pay for, you can make a lot of money. We should hold Dylan Mulvaney up as the picture of capitalism.

Of course, this will make him / her radioactive the Left.

We are making a mistake if we make the Bud Light boycott against Dylan Mulvaney. The problem and the real enemy is Bud Light's Marketing VP who simply "Hates Her Customers"

The boycott needs to be aimed at her. She must be fired and possibly also the Anheuser-Busch CEO. Plus they must apologize to their customers.

Mulvaney just gets more famous and makes more money. Companies will always pay influencers to influence. Marketing VPs can easily be made a casualty of war.

Gov. DeSantis signed a 6 week abortion ban. As I said, and many analysts now agree, this makes it harder for DeSantis to win a general election, but he could not win the Republican primary without it.

What's the next step? I'm sure he is hoping that the Florida Supreme Court knocks out the six-week ban because Florida does have a constitutional right to privacy that affects abortion. We shall see.

Let's assume the court does not strike it down. What's the next political step?

This will be a thread the needle play, but in every appearance he would need to:

A) Explain that reversing Roe, simply sent the matter back to the states.

B) Explain that the federal government has no ability to regulate abortion.

C) State that the left has been lying about supporting Democrats to protect abortion rights. Obama had the house and 60 votes in the Senate and did not try to make abortion legal. Dems want the issue, not the win.

D) Say that abortion will always be legal in California, New York, Illinois, Washington, Oregon and other states where liberal voters decide..

E) Abortion will be illegal in: Alabama, Georgia, Texas, Florida and other states where the voters decide against abortion.

Most importantly, the Supreme Court took Congresses ability to regulate abortion away from Congress. So thinking you will change votes by electing Democrats to Congress is more lies from the left.

Did you hear about the woman who needed a very complex heart surgery and even the best surgeons would have a 40% chance of survival. And then she insisted on having the most inclusive surgical team that could be put together?

Of course not. No one has ever heard of this. When your life is at stake you want the best.

My good friend Joe Budd is a GOP State Committeeman in Florida and ran for Congress in a district that engulfs Palm Beach and Broward Counties.

Joe had a great slogan. "This Budd's For You"

Joe can not use the slogan anymore.

Last week Breitbart carried the story that Donald Trump said that he did not hit Gavin Newsom because Newsom was nice to him.

This might be the first real political dent in Trump's armor.

Another dent is Fox News paying Dominion $787 million for defamation. Fox stated that Dominion committed election fraud, which Fox News knew not to be true.

This really hurts Trump who cannot resist saying 2020 was stolen. Most Republicans are looking forward knowing that if they look back they would get killed in the election.

Young people had a choice. They could feel good or they could feel safe. They voted in 2020 to feel good, and now they panic because we are drawing closer and closer to World War III including use of the word:

"nuclear"

So you are no longer safe, but at least you feel good. This makes us all happy.

Canada has criminalized conduct that is anti-trans. Conceivably if a woman claims to be a man and a gay man refuses to sleep with her, he might wind up in jail.

I am not joking.

I was recently asked when I believe America started to go downhill?

At some point we elevated the "N" word to such a level that it could not be spoken under any circumstances. If it was used in a court case, or a political speech or anything else it had to be deleted from history.

This was the beginning of raising feelings above the First Amendment.

In America people should not use the N word because it's hurtful. But they should never be prohibited because it is illegal or you will suffer the same consequences as if the use of the word were illegal.
