

It Has Become Obvious Why DeSantis Had To Run in 2024

I stated since Election Day 2020 that Ron DeSantis had no choice but to run in 2024. All the people saying he should wait until 2028 are politically naive.

What are the today's headlines?
1) DeSantis suspends campaign to prepare for hurricane
2) Hospitals and colleges are requiring mask mandates
3) Biden wants money for a new Covid vax and make it mandatory.

As a sitting governor, DeSantis has the ability to create news, and challenge Joe Biden's policies.

Once he is out of office, the media will pay no attention.

As I wrote: while DeSantis was driving legislation through the legislature giving him a platform to run on, his poll numbers collapsed which they always do while he is creating solutions to problems (April 2020/August 2021).

Will it allow him to overtake Trump? Only if the Trump supporters realize Trump can't win. DeSantis job? show that he is good at his job, in case it becomes clear to Trumper's, that they will not be able to carry him over the finish line.

Team Trump bitching about the start date of January 6th trial. This is why I say he cannot win. He has no control over his own life. And it's only a matter of time until a judge seriously clips his wings.

Do not expect the Supreme Court to get involved with how the judges restrict Trump while he is out on bail on his 4 indictments. Being a: "Candidate up in the polls," confers no legal status.

Republicans this week passed a great border resolution. This reminds me of all the Republican votes to repeal Obamacare, finally there was a vote that counted, and it failed.

I keep getting asked: "When did I jump off the Trump train?" August 2020 we discovered the extent of the ballot harvesting and vote by mail which made Trump's assumptions meaningless. Trump did not have anyone from his campaign coordinating with the volunteers on the ground. That is why he lost.

What about the allegations of cheating? There is truth to some of it, but he surrounded himself with bad consultants who kept telling him what he wanted to hear.

When I ask Trump supporters how Trump will win the general election? The response usually includes that he had no chance in 2016. Reality?.....In 2016 Donald Trump was the only Republican with a path to 270.

Rush Limbaugh would go through the polls and explain how each and every poll undercounted Republicans and Trump was doing very well. There was only a 3 point differential before the P#ssy tape according to RCP.

According to IBD predictions Trump caught up to Hillary on November 3 and surpassed her on November 5th and was projected to win by 2 points.

If I ask you to make a case for Trump, do not reply that he had no chance in 2016. Approximately November 1, based on a deep dive on the polling data and early voting numbers, I predicted Trump's electoral landslide.

So you want to tell me that I'm wrong, please put some numbers behind it including 270.

Very scary.....very few Republicans have any idea what 270 means? I won't do your homework, Google "electoral votes."

Some of the Trump supporter's Facebook posts:

"Let's change the voting machines before election day." I asked how they planned on accomplishing this, and I am told that Trump has it figured out.

Some Trumper's I totally do not understand: "Donald Trump is currently the president. He is in control of the military." Someone please explain this to me?

A word about the debate. It went down just as expected. No one blew themselves up or broke away from the pack. When people say that none of the candidates are ready for prime time. That is the purpose of a series of debates. The first debate is like AA baseball. They are working themselves up the political ladder. Within a week almost nothing is remembered without a Dan Quayle or Ronald Reagan moment.

I'm hearing how happy the Trumper's are, because they can issue subpoenas and prove the election fraud during the criminal trials.

Not happening.....Let's assume 2000 Mules is 100% correct, and harvested ballots were delivered illegally. There is no provision for throwing out the vote as result of the harvesting, which means the judge will most likely limit the subpoenas and testimony.

The mayor of LA does not blame the retail theft crisis on the thieves. She blames: "profit." You do not know this because the media was busy talking about Trump.

Stop basing political predictions on one poll. Polls show 70% of Americans believe the charges against Trump are politically motivated.

As result, Trump supporters state that there will be huge protests in the street if Trump is convicted due to the outrage of the 70%.

They missed the other poll: 63% are happy that Trump is on trial and believe he is guilty.

I'm seeing a lot of articles stating that Trump charges are backfiring. No, they are not. They are designed to:

- 1) Make sure Trump is the Republican nominee.
- 2) Make it impossible for Trump to win the general election.

Anyone have a poll showing that indictments pull NPA's toward voting for Trump ?
