

Why Jews Vote Democrat?

President Trump agrees with Yours Truly, on abortion. In an NBC interview, Trump said that heavy-handed abortion restrictions helps Democrats, and he will broker a peace.

I have written about this type of solution since before Roe was overturned.

Simple messaging for impeachment inquiry: Usual Democrat response... "There is no evidence for impeachment."

An impeachment inquiry is not impeachment. It is to decide if there is enough evidence to seriously warrant impeachment proceedings.

To launch an impeachment inquiry you only need some allegations:

- 1) Joe Biden interfered in the Ukraine investigation of Hunter and his company.
- 2) Hunter Biden says he pays Dad's bills.
- 3) Joe Biden has enormous net worth, while he visits with his son's business associates.
- 4) The testimony shows that investigation of Hunter Biden's links to Joe Biden was blocked by the DOJ.

That is all you need. Keep it simple. Keep it short.

Now the BIGGIE..... Why do Jews vote Democrat?

Republicans love Israel. Republicans love the Jewish people.

Why do the Jews keep voting for the anti-Semitic party?

Sunday night begins the most holy day in the Jewish calendar, YOM KIPPUR, the Day of Atonement. Jews who do not practice year-round will fast and attend services on this day keeping a connection from the time of Abraham, 3,800 years ago.

And Republican Christians use this opportunity to say that the Jews cannot find atonement without Jesus.

Here is a link to a meme that gets passed around every Yom Kippur and Passover.

It shows a doorpost in ancient Egypt with blood at the top, and says: "The Lord did not check who inside the house was worthy. He checked for the blood on the doorposts. None of us is worthy. Only the blood of Jesus can cover us."

Many of you will see nothing wrong with this. You will agree 100%. And this is the problem.

If you saw a meme posted by Jews that read: "Stop believing the Jesus story. It has no proof whatsoever. Follow the God of Israel for true salvation." How would you feel? Angry? Offended? Rage?

A traditional Jew seeing the Egyptian blood meme feels exactly the same. The difference is, the meme posted by Jews would be intended to offend, but when Christians post similar messages, they are only trying to help, because they love the Jews and Israel.

And this seeds the distrust Jews have of Christians. They also know that New Testament Scripture states that Jesus cannot return unless the Jews accept Jesus. (John 4:22 / Matthew 23:39).

This gives Jews a reason for questioning Christian support of Jewish causes and Israel.

Many of my readers are saying: "We love the Jews because God loves the Jews, we have no ulterior motives."

Let's look at current history. The evangelical: "Assemblies of God" funded the messianic movement in the early 1970s which became known as: "Jews for Jesus."

They understood that if it: "Looked Christian, preached Jesus or had crosses" the Jews would run for the hills.

So Jews for Jesus made everything look Jewish, and even hid Jesus by talking about a Rabbi named Yeshua, supposedly Jesus' Hebrew name.

But the Republican party does not involve itself in Jews for Jesus or other religious denominations, many of you are saying.

That is true, and my reason for writing this column now is because of a new trend that makes the Jews run away from Republicans faster than ever before.

Most Republican events start with an invocation usually ending with: "In Jesus name we pray." This is not exactly inclusive of Jews, but the newest trend is ending the prayer with: "In Yeshua's name we pray"(again- the Hebrew name for Jesus). Somehow this is more inclusive for the Jewish people, yet Judaism considers proselytization by evangelical Christians the greatest threat to the Jewish people since the Holocaust.

I must point out that nothing I write here is directed to those that practice Messianic Judaism. You are free to practice religion any way you see fit. This is directed at Christians that believe they are being inclusive of the Jewish community by using Messianic terminology.

I know many of you are dying to point out all the places in the so-called Old Testament that points to Jesus.

Let me help you: Isaiah 7:14, Isaiah 53, Leviticus 17:11, Zechariah 12:10, Daniel 9 and the list goes on and on. Any Jew with a modicum of torah education can easily point out the fallacies in these claims, however, it is beyond the scope of this column to have a back and forth on biblical prophecy.

If you wish any discussion about scripture, I refer you to: www.beyneynu.com. This organization was founded by a Christian missionary who excelled at converting Jews. When she began in-depth study, she came to the realization that her beliefs had no biblical foundation.

The greatest event since the creation of the world was the Exodus from Egypt and the 40 years in the desert. This culminated in God himself speaking directly to ALL of the Jewish people gathered at Mount Sinai (Exodus 20). 2 million is often used as the number of Jews present. In addition, tradition says that all future Jewish souls were also gathered at Mount Sinai in addition to the 2 million.

Christians BELIEVE in Jesus. Jews WITNESSED God first hand.

Jews should not tell Christians what to believe and how to read their bible. Likewise, Christians should not tell Jews, who were directly spoken to by God, how to interpret their bible.

The perception of Republicans not being friendly to Jews was further diminished at the quarterly Republican Party of Florida meeting held on Rosh Hashanah, the Jewish New Year last weekend.. I believe this includes the vote to scrap the loyalty pledge.

The Democrats may elect anti-Semites, but they don't hold events on the Jewish high holidays, and then wonder why the Jews do not vote for them?

The traditional Yom Kippur greeting is: "G'mar chatima tova" "May you be sealed in the Book of Life."
