

Do Biden Voters Have Jewish Blood on their Hands?

I did not write a column last week as there was no news. The last 7 days make up for it.

The only subject that Republicans should talk about this week is Israel and Joe Biden. Weapons from Afghanistan and $6 billion to Iran is the cause of the greatest terror attacks and the darkest days for Israel since the Holocaust.

Republicans need to be speaking with one voice. Biden incompetence is helping our enemies and the enemies of our greatest ally.

Likewise Pres. Trump needs to talk about Israel and not "witch hunts or corrupt prosecutors and judges."

Let's see if he has the discipline?

Many of the victims are US citizens. How will Biden handle this? Give Iran more money? How will Chuck Schumer play this? If Trump was still in the White House, the attack would not have occurred, and if it did occur then US citizens would be returned immediately because Trump would have flattened Gaza in 3 hours.

I have no inside information and I write this on Sunday night to email on Tuesday, but I think Israel is deciding whether to launch a full-scale attack against the Palestinians or declare war on Iran and destroy Iran's ability to fund terrorism.

Liberal Jews get very upset when I say: "If you voted for Biden, you have Jewish blood on your hands."

This is a true statement. Elections have consequences and we need to let people know that they are responsible for their vote.

Let me sum up the difference between Israelis and Palestinians:

"If the Jews kill Palestinians, the Jews cry. If the Palestinians kill Jews the Palestinians celebrate."

I miss Rush Limbaugh. When Rush was on the air, Republicans were knowledgeable and the memes were impressive. Today the information that is posted is just wrong.

They do not need a fraud victim in the New York fraud case. New York has a crazy law called the Martin Act, of 1921, which gives the New York State Atty. Gen. incredible power no other state has

"It is a political persecution, it is a witch hunt, and everybody does business the same way, " but none of those are grounds to win the case. The fact is the judge has already ruled that Trump lost the case, and the only the question is the penalty. How much? And there is no appeal that will probably reach the Supreme Court because it is a state law case.

The question is asked why would Trump not demand a jury trial. The usual answer is this law does not allow for a jury trial. I have stated that running for president with all this litigation makes Trump a bad defendant AND a bad candidate.

He should have demanded a jury trial to preserve the issue for appeal. My belief, he did not want a jury, because voters will not pay attention to this trial because it's accounting gobbledygook, but jurors on TV after the case explaining the verdict would politically hurt Trump's chances.

The new COVID vaccine is available with no clinical trials on humans. The government was against safe drugs such as hydroxychloroquine and ivermectin, because there were no double-blind studies.

Similar to: Let's overthrow The Speaker because he passed a budget with Democrat support. THEN... a handful of Republicans toss The Speaker with all Democrat support.

I spoke at a Republican club in Palm Beach County. I asked the following question: "How many expect Joe Biden to be the nominee for the Democrats?"

Only 25%.... 75% do not expect Biden to be the 2024 nominee. Do we have a game plan to beat anyone other than Biden?

Alan's Meme of the Week: Iced Tea (unsweet) has 2 ingredients: Ice and Tea. A refill needs both. Why is this so hard to understand?

Imagine the Israelis whose mothers, fathers, sons, daughters even grandparents were taken hostage. And now they have to tell the government of Israel to make their loved ones martyrs because Israel has no choice but to destroy the terrorists even if it costs their loved ones their lives.
