

GOP Finally Acts as a Team

Republicans voted as a team for the Biden Impeachment Inquiry.

When you hear a Liberal whine, use the following simple response:
“Because a special counsel indicted Hunter Biden, Congress needs to insure that Joe Biden was not involved in these dealings, so an inquiry allows Congress to investigate.”

(The following is written pursuant to my First Amendment rights and not as a Medicare agent)

With Medicare Open enrollment season over and no more commercials, a question I am often asked is: “Why do I need an agent? Why not call the company? “

I was contacted by an acquaintance who paid over $10,000 to their dentist for surgery that was not covered by their Medicare Advantage plan. One of my clients had the exact same situation which was covered 100 percent by the same Medicare Advantage plan. What was the difference?

In the second case an agent such as myself got involved to help write an appeal to show that the advantage plan was wrong in their determination. Dentists and oral surgeons always submit plans using dental codes, however this type of surgery was medically necessary and needed a formal review to recode and cover the procedure.

When you call a company and sign up with their agent, that agent will not be available to help you do battle with their company. Their job ends when they write the policy for the company they work for.

Whether or not you use an independent agent, the cost to you is the same, so why not have someone on your side?

While we are very proud of Elise Stefanik asking the elite university presidents how threats of genocide of Jews are handled on campus, a better question is: “Which has harsher consequences: mis-gendering a student or threatening genocide of Jews on campus ? “

Dear Donald:
You have the perfect opportunity to narrow and clarify the “Stolen Election” position and turn all the attention to your opponent. Just keep saying the following:

“This indictment from the Hunter Biden special counsel proves the 2024 election was stolen.”

Joe Biden lied to the American public that he received no benefit, had no information or dealings and knew nothing about Hunter Biden’s business. This was a lie. This lie was spread by the media acting in concert with Joe Biden and the Democrat Party.

The polls show that if the American public was aware of the Hunter Biden laptop and the other allegations, I would have won the election easily.

Remember when we pushed out Mccarthy, and I told you he was going to give up his seat slimming the Republican majority? Many of you said no, that would never happen?

Why does top Republican leadership not understand human nature? Why should he remain in Congress when he can make a fortune in the private market? More important.... why show up every day to an insane asylum?

Of course many of you are thrilled that we pushed out George Santos. Will the Democrats ever cut their majority to do the right thing? When will Republican’s learn that winning is everything. This is politics.

I am in a cruise ship in the southern Caribbean and probably will not put out another issue until after Christmas. If you celebrate Christmas then I wish you a Merry Christmas and if you do not celebrate Christmas then I wish you a happy Christmas because the federal courts have ruled Christmas is not a religious holiday on December 25th. So feel free to enjoy it anyway you wish.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

When I listen to Ben Shapiro, Charlie Kirk and the others on the college campuses, every college student frames their issue with “I BELIEVE”

This is the problem. I argue facts. Belief is for religion and quasi religions like Earth Day, transgenderism and every otherism.

When people start their argument with: “I believe,” shut them down. Facts do not need beliefs.

The media makes the case that Trump looks totally electable. If the election was held today that would be 100 percent true. Problem is the election will be held during the 6 months of criminal trials and I’m still waiting for one person to tell me that they have a foolproof plan that Trump comes out of that keeping his majority?

The special counsel wants the Supreme Court to decide the Trump immunity claim immediately, thus speeding up the process. I don’t think the court likes the idea of deciding this was a presidential act and that was done as a candidate and this was done as a criminal. It’s too convoluted and I think the court may give Trump his immunity.

HOWEVER.... Always remember Alan’s Scotus rule #1....You should never predict what the Supreme Court will do because they are legally free to do anything they want.

When someone tells you Israel has killed 15,000 civilians, ask them one question:
“ How do you know?”
A) How do you know how many are truly dead?
B) How do you know who are the civilians?

Just because you’re under 18 does not mean you’re not a terrorist. We learned that so called civilians were holding hostages in their apartments. Try these two questions. You’ll be amazed at the results.

Final question... When they dig up artifacts in Jerusalem, thousands of years old, what language is it in? ANSWER- HEBREW!!!

Alan’s Meme of the Week:
In two weeks the world will celebrate the birth of a Jewish baby in Israel 2000 years ago. And yet the Jews only arrived in Israel in 1948?
