

Anti-Semitism is Everywhere

In the US you would think that everybody hates Israel because of the protesters. The reality is the protesters are about 15% of the population. They are all young college kids and they are stupid as hell.

In the USA, we have Israel's back, even though Joe Biden doesn't know it. The Israel issue alone will probably cost him the election.

The President of Sonoma State University has resigned so he would not get fired. He gave into the protesters, and the bosses did not like that. That should be a lesson to all weakling college presidents.

Most of the college encampments have been broken up as management finally had enough and sent in the police.

Or they could do what Florida did, and not allow any of it to happen. Once again Florida leads the country in how to do it right.

Does Trump put on a defense?

If I remember correctly, in New York State if you do not put on a defense, then you get the last chance in arguing your innocence. In other words the prosecution would go first and then you go last. That is a very important point.

On the other hand, the defense may call Robert Costello who will say that Michael Cohen never had anything on Donald Trump including the payoff to Stormy Daniels.

They would also like to put on a FEC witness to say that the federal government has looked at this and they have no desire to prosecute as they cannot maintain a conviction.

Do not look for Donald Trump to take the witness stand. It would be a disaster.

All the evidence of Stormy Daniels is irrelevant. None of it goes to the question of record keeping, and she did not have direct evidence that Trump made the deal.

The only connection was Michael Cohen and the Defense did a great job showing he lied about everything that counted. Also, the fact that Michael Cohen stole from the Trump Organization is really the nail in the coffin .

Donald Trump went to Barron's graduation because he was a good boy and did not give the judge a reason to put him in jail for contempt. This proves that Trump can stay within the lines when he wants to.

The President of Iran went down in a helicopter crash with his Foreign Minister and some other chief aides. I think Israel is involved but I can't say for sure. The president and the foreign minister have both been confirmed dead.

If Israel did not do this, then we have God to thank.

The reason I don't expect Trump to take the witness stand is because the judge is allowing everything including the civil complaints and everything else to be used in cross examination, Therefore Trump can take the stand if he wants to, the reality is he's better off not.

Making Trump sit through the trial has been the greatest gift the judge can give him. He's much better when he's not campaigning and then focusing on Biden. I'm hoping that Trump will learn the lesson, keep his mouth shut and let the media focus on Biden.

FYI- I had a great vacation including the cruise and a few days in New York visiting family and I would do it again in a heartbeat

Israel announced that they have found 700 terror tunnels running under Rafah and 50 of them leading into Egypt. As Israel makes these tunnels unusable, Hamas will have nowhere to go.

Nearly 800,000 Palestinians have moved out of Rafah to avoid shelling and other bombardment. This is a great victory as the United States kept saying that the people of Gaza would not leave.

Trump out-fundraised Biden in April by $25 million, but Biden has a $192,000,000 on hand in campaign cash.
