

Trump Finally Gets Vote By Mail Right

It took four years but Donald Trump has finally come out in favor of vote by mail and early voting for the election. If he would have done this in 2020 he would have won. No question about this. Telling Republicans not to vote by mail and to vote on election day killed us in 2020.

Why is vote by mail or early voting so important. One reason is when you vote by mail or early vote, we take you off the list of people that haven't voted yet. We know that the ballot is in, so we can spend our resources on the votes that have not been cast. When you vote in person on Election Day, we're constantly calling, texting and emailing to remind you to vote on election day.

Most important, if there's vote by mail then the Republicans have votes coming in, not just Democrats. Election Day ended and Dem votes were still coming in. Also, if you are sick we can come pick up a ballot, but if you don't have a ballot, we can't help.

When DeSantis won in 2022 the election was over before it started because we had more votes in early voting and vote by mail that the Democrats could not catch up. That is the magic formula.

Thomas Sowell said that black soldiers and white soldiers who had babies with German women in Germany, their babies IQ's were exactly the same. In other words, these children did not grow up with a black subculture and they were not held back by the black subculture and therefore they performed equally to whites

The black subculture is what has ruined blacks for 50 years in America.

A gay persons hatred of Jews has to be so great to support an organization that wants to kill Jews and also wants to kill them.

The mainstream media has gone off the deep end because the IDF has killed 104 combatants while freeing the four hostages. This is a real actual number, "104.". These were all combatants.

We welcome our hostages back. Remember, no Jew in the entire world is keeping Arabs hostage. No Jew in the entire world wants their children to grow up to be suicide bombers.

This is how you know who the people on the right side of the battle are.

The United States is one of the few countries in the entire world where voter ID is not required. So we lecture the world but don't require voter ID. Figure that.

January 6th. The entire debate may boil down to how Trump handles the January 6th question. He must find a way to answer the question quickly and move on. If he dwells on it he loses the debate. He should say that January 6th is in the past and he is moving forward and mentioning that Hillary Clinton is still saying that he did not win the 2016 election... On the question of pardons for the defendants, he should say that they need to be looked at individually and decisions made at that time.

Nikki Haley should be Trumps VP, but he just can't go there. She checks off all the boxes, She's female, color, she looks good, she's smart, and she will beat Kamala's ass.

The former governor of North Dakota is a old white guy. Marco Rubio comes from Florida and Tim Scott could not gain any traction running for president.

Nikki Haley for Vice-President

Judge Merchan does know not what to do. He thought the conviction would ruin Trump, but he has just gone up in the polls He's afraid if he puts Trump in jail, it guarantees him the White House. He does not want Trump to become POTUS. He is so lost.

At first I thought he would put Trump in jail, but now I don't think so. The worse he makes a sentence, the better Trump's chances of getting appeal bail, so he will be able to go any where he wants while out on bail. Right now the suspended sentence with some probation conditions is probable, but we will wait and see what happens.
