

EVERY REPUBLICAN NEEDS TO QUESTION BIDEN'S PRESIDENCY

It's been more than a week, and stolen valor is still a number one topic in the press. Great job JD Vance.

The race has flipped with Kamala being ahead. Trump is down in the swing states. The good news is in 2016 when he was down, he was great coming from behind. In 2020 he was never behind.

But he will have to get her talking to win.

Trump may have a strategy for the DNC. He will give a one hour summary every day. Maybe he will give interviews every day to the MSM networks. Maybe he'll buy airtime on MSM commercials He's got something planned. (I Hope)

The difference at a Kamala rally is she needs the stars to get the crowd. Trump is the star.

I was not going to put out a column this week. There really not much to say, but the Republicans hitting Kamala/ Biden every minute is important.

What the Republicans have to do is everyone, Senator, Congressman, state official, every one that gets in front of a TV or a reporter asks why is Joe Biden still the president. They have to bring the pressure.

Just remember when Biden says your body your choice, he made millions of women take an experimental shot that they did not want. So much for freedom of choice.

Kamala is making ads for positions that she doesn't believe. Long election cycle would catch up with her her, but this is a very short cycle. He needs to attack.

Marriott is suing a franchisee in New York City for renting their rooms to migrants.

It's possible Trump was not prepared at all for the Kamala Harris coronation and doesn't know what to do.

He needs to go out and campaign and attack and get the media asking questions.

When he does a one hour press conference, the only thing they remember is: "Was he in a helicopter with Willie Brown?" He has to be more concise with a 30 minute limit.

Nikki Haley says Trump has to focus on policy and not crowd size or other distractions

This is why I did not want him running for president. Everyone else would have been focused. He can turn it around, .but he has to be disciplined.
