

Israel is Bombing Hamas Again

Israel has given Hamas plenty of time to negotiate. Negotiations are over. Israel is bombing the hell out of Hamas.

I said during Trump's first term, that one of the things he does is reconnaissance. When things don't matter, he test them, just to see what will happen. There's no election now and polls are meaningless. This is the time you test.

Democratic Congressman Raúl Grijalva from Arizona has died. This temporarily increases the Republican majority.

The DOGE Dividend. Current thinking is that only people who pay taxes would get the DOGE Dividends. I agree with this. That means that only the rich or the upper class, because they pay all the taxes. It will not be politically popular but it will start a conversation that this country needs to have over who's really paying the taxes.

Most people in the lower half of the economic scale pay zero taxes. In fact many of them get back more than they pay in.

Remember what I have been saying. The jobs that come from driving Uber or Lyft and all the driving jobs in America are going to be gone in the next 10 years with self-driving cars. We have to deport a lot of the driver class that are illegal out of the United States.

Elon Musk is corrupt. Then, how much money do you have to pay him to bribe him? How are you going to do this? These are the questions that crazies have to be asked.

Democrats calm down. Elan Musk cannot become President unless he can find the guy who made Obama's birth certificate.

The Constitution says that for a bill to become a law, the president has to sign it. I guess an auto pen doesn't work. What about pardons? The language is different. "He has the power to pardon." The issue will be, did Biden do the pardons or did his assistants, Stay tuned.

Keep in mind the pardon said they were signed in Washington DC, and on that day Joe Biden was not in Washington DC.

Medicare for seniors only works because the rest of the country subsidizes it. Seniors pay on average $185 per month for their Medicare. It costs the government $1,000 a month. This comes from the Medicare taxes. There is no way to make it work for non-seniors.

I think Trump should take the various majors and break it down into probability of getting a job. STEM fields and nursing: 100% should be covered by loans and grants. Lesbian Dance Theory and Philosophy? Maybe loans and grants should only cover 30%. This seems fair.

Tren de Aragua gang members, who are terrorizing areas of the United States have been sent to El Salvador, to a maximum security prison. We pay them a little bit of money for them to house our prisoners and the prisoners look like scared rats, because unlike the United States, if they get out of line, they will be tortured and killed.

USA Today ran a story on Americans married to Foreigners being deported by Trump. The story of Bartel and Munoz. She overstayed her visa, she was coming back from the honeymoon when they arrested her. Why did she not take care of the visa overstay before she traveled?

The article says a woman in her 50s living in this country 30 years, and married to a citizen. BUT, it does not say she applied for permanent residency.

A European woman in her thirties engaged to US citizen who overstayed her visa when she was 21. Goodbye!

I went through the immigration process for my wife. She never overstayed her visa, and we followed every rule meticulously. She kept her nose clean, received a temporary green card, a permanent green card, and then applied for citizenship. Now she's a proud Republican. The sob stories are better when you follow the rules.

There is a video of a woman who leaves gold on her car in Dubai and no one touches it. I guess chopping your hands off teaches people a lesson.

JB Pritzker the Governor of Illinois, is getting rid of the program where everyone regardless of documentation status deserves access to holistic healthcare coverage. It costs a lot more than they thought it would and now these older illegals have to fend for themselves.

Meme of the Week: When people say: "Enjoy them while they are young," they're referring to your knees and hips not your kids.
