On Thursday, Hamas will return the bodies of the Bibas family, which includes two young children. This will be heartbreaking for the Israeli public. In addition on Saturday, Hamas will release the last six hostages in phase one of the ceasefire.

I think on Saturday night Israel should attack Iran with the United States, taking out their nuclear reactors and the Ayatollahs. I don't think anything less than this we'll soothe the Israeli soul.

According to Alan Dershowitz, the constitution was designed to avoid a constitutional crisis even though we have 3 separate but equal branches of government. There is no constitutional crisis, the Supreme Court will rule and everyone will pretty much follow

However, after the Supreme Court ruling on student loans, Joe Biden kept finding ways to forgive loans. So do not be surprised if Trump only follows a part of the Supreme Court ruling because that is what Biden did

Trump signed an Executive Order that individuals who are on public housing have two years effective 2026, to get off the public housing rolls. He says: figure out your life because public housing is something that is designed to get you on your feet, not live permanently.

So they figured out why the federal government is so screwed up. They use a 1950s salt mine because they can only allow 10,000 people a day to retire from federal service. They don't have the capacity to handle anymore. I don't think it will be too hard to computerize the records and not need the mine anymore.

UCLA's new Chancellor suspends Students for Justice in Palestine

CNN 70% of Americans agree that Trump is doing what he said he would do when he ran for election.

Trump is making a play for Virginia. He lost Virginia by 260,000 votes. Most federal workers come from Virginia and Maryland. If he can cut the number of federal workers in Virginia, Republicans will win the state in 2028.

A federal judge blocked Trump sending three Venezuelan migrants to Guantanamo. So Trump sent them back to Venezuela. More than one way to beat the judge.

Before Biden left office he signed some orders about drilling in the Gulf of Mexico. I guess there are no such orders about drilling in the Gulf of America.

Two professors, one from Georgetown and one from the University of Minnesota wrote a New York Times essay saying that Pres.

Trump's case on birthright citizenship is stronger than most people give him credit for. In other words, they are agreeing with me.

Why can children of illegal immigrants go to school in the United States for free? The 1982 Supreme Court ruling of Plyler v. Doe, is the reason. The court said: "No national policy is perceived that might justify the state and deny these children in elementary education."

It is possible, that simply using an Executive Order is enough to create a federal policy, ending the practice of illegals in our schools.

In Tennessee the governor signed a law expanding K-12 school vouchers for parents, but illegal immigrants were not part of the law. Some states will make it easy, other states will make it tough for illegals.

Although Elon Musk is telling us there are 10s of millions of people above age 100 receiving Social Security, he has not put a dollar sign on it. This will be the real test.

There is a meme about RFK Sr. sitting next to RFK Jr. saying: "I am proud of you son," at the Senate hearing. It reminds us that Bobby Kennedy was only 42 when he was shot and killed.

There is no doubt that Trump's "Rock Em, Sock Em" strategy could not have been duplicated by any other Republican. Four years of being president and four years of plotting revenge has made for a deadly Trump, and he is playing it for all it is worth.

It's going around the internet that the DOGE DIVIDEND which would be a rebate check to all Americans of what they saved from DOGE. It would have Donald Trump's signature on and go out in time for the 2026 midterms. Buying votes with saved money instead of borrowed money. That's America.

In Indiana, a trans man was arrested for plotting a Parkland style shooting. He was two days away from executing the plan. In Maryland, three armed transgender vegan cult members were arrested for at least six murders.

There is a reason we're not allowing them in the military anymore.

Meme of the Week: In Natanya Israel, a business had a sign up. "We'd rather do business with 1,000 Hamas terrorists than with one Jew."

What kind of business.? The Chevra Kadisha. The Burial Society
