There are sanctuary cities that under state law, they don't play ball with the feds. In that case, ICE should go to the neighborhoods and start arresting people wholesale. They simply say: " You want to protect the dangerous criminals? Then we'll just arrest your neighbors until you're ready to turn the criminals in."

Trump has signed an Executive Order to terminate any and all federal benefits going to illegals.

Department of Agriculture will not allow food stamps to go to anyone that is not a legal resident.

The two Bibas children were strangled by hand and then mutilated. This was not done by Hamas. This was done by regular Gazans. There are no innocent Gazans. I don't care if they're six months old. They must be destroyed.

It's not fair. Someone not working pays nothing for Medicaid. No copays, no deductibles, no co-insurance, etc. Even with a full subsidy, a working person will have a $9500 deductible. Make the people on Medicaid pay something.

Federal government employees were probably protesting in DC while they said they were working. Get the videos and fire them.

Here's an idea. If you report a criminal alien, someone wanted for murder, or other serious crime, and that person is arrested, you get a green card and $50,000. Of course you yourself have to have a clean record.

Israel has sent tanks into the West Bank, for the first time in 20 years, with orders to stay there. The planned attacks on Israel, with 15 buses, came from the West Bank and Israel is basically tired of it, and they don't care what happens to the Palestinian's anymore.

Federal workers are outraged that they have to provide a work summary.

Truck driver: I have a cab camera face me watching every move I make, 24/7... I have an electronic device on the dash recording when I stop, when I go, for how long, and how fast or slow I am driving... I have an electronic logbook telling me where I can drive or not whether, I'm tired or not... I have a satellite device on my truck so they know my exact location.

Dan Bongino named Deputy Director of the FBI. The media that is up in arms about him, has not listened to him for 10 seconds.

It seems Muhammad Abbas, President of the Palestinian Authority is not stopping, "Pay to Slay." He is merely changing the payment system to a different entity.

A federal judge has issued a restraining order, not to allow immigration enforcement in the plaintiff's churches. It's ridiculous that illegals have a right to seek asylum in a church.

It is my belief that the deal with Russia has already been made. When Marco Rubio and the Russian Foreign Minister got together, they struck a deal, and everything Trump is saying and doing is theater.

Now Zelensky is coming to Washington on Friday to sign a mineral rights deal. Everything is going exactly as planned.

(This is long but everyone should read it)

Yarden Bibas, husband of Shiri and father of Ariel and Kfir as he buried his family today:

"Mi Amor"

I remember the first time I said "mi amor" to you. It was at the very beginning of our relationship. You told me to only call you that if I was certain I loved you, not to say it carelessly. I didn't say it then because I didn't want you to think I was rushing to say "I love you." Shiri, I'll confess to you now that I already loved you back then when I said "mi amor."

Shiri, I love you and will always love you!

Shiri, you are everything to me!

You are the best wife and mother there could be.

Shiri, you are my best friend.

Mishmish, who will help me make decisions now? How am I supposed to make decisions without you?

Do you remember our last decision together?

In the safe room, I asked if we should "fight or surrender."

You said fight, so I fought.

Shiri, I'm sorry I couldn't protect you all. If only I had known what would happen, I wouldn't have fired.

I think about everything we went through together—there are so many beautiful memories.

I remember Ariel and Kfir's births. I remember the days we would sit at home or in a café, just the two of us, talking for hours about everything under the sun. It was wonderful. I miss those times deeply.

Your presence is profoundly missed.

I want to tell you about everything that's happening in the world and here in Israel.

Shiri, everyone knows and loves us—you can't imagine how surreal all this madness is.

Shiri, people tell me they'll always be by my side, but they're not you. So please stay close to me and don't go far!

Shiri, this is the closest I've been to you since October 7th, and I can't kiss or hug you, and it's breaking me!

Shiri, please watch over me...

Protect me from bad decisions. Shield me from harmful things and protect me from myself. Guard me so I don't sink into darkness.

Mishmish, I love you!

Chuki, Ariel,
