Michael Savage has it right. He just starts yelling at the people protesting Tesla and saying that they are a bunch of losers.

I see our people interviewing the losers and all you need to say is: "You're the fascist. You're the loser. You're the communist and you're going to burn in hell." Don't get into logical conversation with emotional wrecks, be emotional.

In the White House meeting with President Trump, Bill Maher brought a list of insults Trump had said about him over the years and handed to him

What did Trump do? He signed it.

Netanyahu is annexing parts of Gaza. If the Palestinians want to save Gaza they better hand over the hostages alive.

Hamas is changing their death numbers. The group claimed women and children made up about 70% of the dead. Now they're saying 72% of the deaths among those age 13 to 55 are male which is a typical for fighters.

Using child soldiers also distorts the numbers.

Bill Gates runs around the world telling us we need wind and solar power. When Microsoft needed power for a data farm in Pennsylvania, they wanted nuclear power.

Give a man a fish and feed him for a day. Deport a man and you never have to feed him again.

Trump: I have completely silenced the climate change folks. Not a word about it anymore. I even have them burning electric cars, destroying charging stations, and tearing down everything they used to stand for. We are laughing at them.

It looks like Democrat Congressmen in swing districts are going to try to win statewide elections, rather than run for the reelection. This will make it easier for Republicans to keep and grow the House majority.

The survey question I would like to see: "How long has Donald Trump been president?"

Democrat members of Congress cannot issue a statement saying that fire bombing a TESLA dealership or destroying a TESLA is wrong. They're on the wrong side of every issue.

In 2025 the US government must be re-finance $9.2 trillion dollars in maturing debt. Every 100th of a percent drop in interest rates saves the government approximately $1 billion per year.

Eric Trump said: "I've watched my dad do this for 40 years. People that come to the table early get the best deals. That's simple."

People that do not receive Obamacare subsidies have a choice in Red states between short-term major medical and indemnity plans. I strongly suggest a good indemnity plan because short-term plans have many more exclusions and also lasts 6 months or less.

When Trump allows the short term plans to last for three years, then the equation will change.

It should be obvious why Trump pulled Elise Stefanik. He knew once Liberation Day happened and the markets tanked, he would probably lose the seat.

Dr Oz has been confirmed by the US Senate to head the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid services.

This is $1.25 trillion dollar agency under Bobby Kennedy's HHS. Under Bobby's leadership it will be based upon staying healthy and being healthy. We don't have starving children in America. We have a 74% obesity problem. And of course my favorite is what he's going to do with Medicare and Medicare Advantage? I will keep you informed.

If Trump is not using the tariffs as negotiating ploy and honestly believes in tariffs on its own, what is going to happen is the House of Representatives will not pass his tax cut package.

If he breaks faith with the American public, the American public will break faith with him, and the tax cuts will suffer. They will be able to bring it back for a vote later, so that is why I'm hopeful that this is a negotiating ploy. We will know later this week, or not.

The House has cleared the decks by reaching a compromise with Representative Anna Paulina Luna's bill for remote voting.

2025: School will be closed due to the high winds.

1986: Tornado happening. Go in the hall and put a book on your head. Also we're having pizza for lunch.

The Supreme Court ruled 5 to 4 that the venue on the Venezuelan detainees is where they're being held, which is Texas not Washington DC. That should be the ball game. Interestingly the 5-4 decision, it was Amy Barrett not the Chief Justice throwing a wrench in the works.

The aliens get a chance for judicial review, but the burden will probably be very high. This win definitely goes to Donald Trump.

Dr Oz at CMS: 230,000 Americans on the Affordable Care Act did not know they were on the Affordable Care Act . The State of California is taking tens of billions of dollars from the federal government, providing free health insurance for illegal immigrants. Dr Oz: We are going to get that money back.

The DHS and IRS have a memorandum of understanding allowing the DHS to submit names to IRS of people that have a final deportation order and have not left after 90 days. The IRS will give them their address. This is Trump not playing games any longer.

Student visas are being revoked for students who: Driving with a learner's permit with no adult in the car, stealing $144 from Walmart, DUI where there was no jail time

Folks when you have a Visa you are a guest and when you commit these petty offenses, you have violated your visa and are subject to cancellation. Those are the rules. You should have thought of that before you stole from Walmart.

Another Trump win, the Supreme Court on Tuesday blocked the order for the Trump administration to rehire 16,000 probationary employees.

So far almost everything going to Supreme Court turns out to be a Trump win.

Meme of the Week I just asked my 9-year-old son what he learned in school today.

He said: "Apparently not enough, because I have to go back tomorrow. "
