The Trump administration is paying $25 Billion dollars this year to the Medicare Advantage companies. This is big, as Biden cut Advantage big time and Trump is restoring it.

The Palestinian Information Center has a picture of a French doctor arriving in the Gaza strip to offer medical help. It is none other than Catherine Heigl, playing Dr. Izzy Stevens, on Greys Anatomy. At least she looks good.

Right now GOP members of Congress are signing on to bipartisan bills to block Trump's tariffs. As of this moment no biggie as he will veto it . If this goes on much longer, there'll be enough votes to override the veto. UPDATE Trump delayed the tariffs, otherwise his own bills would not have gone through including his tax cut.

Senator Kennedy on AOC: "I think she's the reason there are directions on a shampoo bottle."

AOC Is however climbing in the polls and she has the left wing of the Democrat Party, and she's moved off some of her horrible positions. I think she has a glass jaw but she will make noise until the primaries get started.

The Office of Personal Management of the federal government is testing AI to automate federal employee records. What used to take months to do by hand, now they can get it at the push of a button.

On Wednesday Trump announced a 90-day pause on tariffs except for China. Stock market jumped 3,000 points. For the past week it is being kind of level as investors try to figure out what Trump is trying to do.

Another poor immigrant story. 27-year-old University of Florida student was detained by ICE and being deported for actually no good reason, except he was driving without a license. I guess that was a good reason

Donald Trump on Governor Huckabee becoming the Ambassador to Israel: "He's going to be fantastic. He's going to bring home the bacon. Even though bacon is not big in Israel. " For those scratching their head, bacon is not kosher.

Trump signs Executive Order so you can take a high pressure shower. Obama limited us to 2.5 gallons per minute. Trump said: You have to take a shower five times as long to accomplish the same thing.

Just about now, Gaza is feeling the effects of the blockade. This should have the effect of making the Gazans want to leave Gaza for any other country.

Many years ago I read that the US and Japan would go into a negotiation. The Japanese were preparing their list of demands, which were outrageous, expecting the US to negotiate. The US accepted the demands, so the Japanese obviously accepted. That is what Trump is trying to fix.

A Federal Judge has found that Trump's app and fines for illegals is 100% legal. Illegals should self-deport.

DOGE found 2.1 million Social Security numbers, that were given out to non-citizens in 2024, many of which were being used to access social programs.

The CBP One app, that Christy Noam is now using to revoke status to over 900,000 immigrants, has the ability to find you. This will make it very easy to deport you.

A Liberal woman sold her TESLA and she's thinking it through, and realizing it hasn't hurt Elon, it's only hurt her. Why didn't she think it through before she sold?

Saudi Arabia has banned all public displays in support for Palestine.

They will be joining the Abraham accords very shortly.

Here is a biblical question. If Jesus were Jewish and his disciples were Jewish, then for the last supper they would have gone out for Chinese food.

Scratching your head again? The night before Passover going out for Chinese food is a Jewish tradition.

President Trump just authorized the Sec. of Defense to militarize the open reservation along the US border in California Arizona in Mexico. That 60 ft buffer zona stretching 700 miles will be considered military property and illegals will automatically be guilty of trespassing on a military installation.

Donald Trump to Bill Maher showing him the picture of Reagan in the oval office. Trump: The best thing about him? " His hair."

Bill Maher: A crazy person does not live at the White House. A person that plays a crazy person on TV a lot lives in the White House.

What we're learning from the above is, if you watch liberal networks the only clips you see are Trump acting like a crazy man and if you watch the Trump networks, the only clips are of Trump acting normal.

A Federal Judge has ruled that ICE can continue to carry out immigration enforcement at churches and other place of worship.

Which common sense would have told you they can do.

HHS is the department that figures out what the federal poverty rate is. That department has been extinguished through DOGE. Somehow with AI, computers and instantaneous data, we don't need a task-force to figure out a poverty rate. One person should do it.

The federal government has revoked 1200 student visas. This is 4X the last number announced.

A Federal Judge ruled that is legal to force illegals to register and carry documentation. That is because that is always been the law. If you are a legal non-citizen you must carry documentation and you must be registered. Therefore making it effective for illegals also counts.

Conversation with a Liberal: Her: I think DOGE has to cut slower

Me: We have a $36 trillion dollar deficit. Interest is $1 trillion dollars per year. If we don't find cuts in staffing then Social Security will have to be cut. Which do you prefer? She will get back to me.

Another green card holder has been detained at the airport. He had a conviction for marijuana possession but he did not spend any time in jail. When you have any contact with the police and you are a foreign national, you must report it. I bet he didn't.

Doesn't sound like a health-related cut to me. programs such as "Internet," from Medicaid. Is it a Medicaid cut? Trump is cutting

Was Elon exaggerating when he talked about DOGE and people with social security numbers? A woman has been convicted of impersonating her dead mother who has been dead for 25 years. She collected over $360,000 in benefits.
