Before Israel bombed the airport in Yemen, they called up and told everyone to get the hell out. Hamas would never do that.

The YMCA has a form that asks you how you heard about the YMCA.

One of the choices is: Village People.

The Biden Administration sent $ 2.1 billion dollars to Gaza (Hamas) after October 7th. So we were funding both sides of the war. When the liberal loons talk about Israel, remind them that Hamas got money from the United States also.

Dr. Simone Gold: A study of 1.7 million children found that myocarditis and pericarditis only appeared in children who had received the COVID MRNA vaccines. Not a single unvaccinated child suffers from these heart problems.

The first thing you have to do when handling these riots at colleges is: "No Masks." Until they do that, the schools are not serious about stopping the Pro Hamas rioters.

Only 21 hostages still alive in Gaza. One has been returned leaving 20.

Bernie Sanders: Tariffs are price increases because they are taxes on businesses passed on to the consumer. Rand Paul: Great, now do corporate taxes.

Very simple: You are arrested because you're illegal, they offer $1,000 to self-deport, plus we buy the plane tickets. Sounds like a great deal.

Headline: College student faces deportation after running red light. Wow sounds cruel. A red light and you can be deported? Oh yeah if you were illegal to begin with. That, they did not put that in the headline.

This was funny. My cardiologist charged me a $35 copay for my Humana Medicare plan when it should have been $15. I called Humana, who called the cardiologist and told him how disappointed she was that they were ripping off Humana patients. It's fun to watch a doctor get berated.

Trump threatened to run for Pope, so the Conclave elects an American Pope. More winning.

Public Safety Warning: Scammers put stickers on public QR codes such as Park Mobile. Scanning the code takes you to a site that steals your information. Be alert.

The Prime Minister of Poland says... " How can 500 million Europeans ask 300 million Americans to protect them from 140 million Russians? " Then he adds: " but I'll tell you something even more astonishing... There are two billion Muslims asking the world to protect them from 7 million Jews."

I watched scenes of the police on the college campuses. I just have one question? Why not handcuff everybody to each other? You get a lot more efficiency. Instead of 12 people trying to handcuff one person. A whole bunch get handcuffed at the same time, and nothing funnier than watching a bunch of liberals try to run in different directions.

The difference a President makes. Under Trump, Columbia University has suspended 65 students after they took over a building last week. Under Biden, they were given medals.

One of the things President Trump is trying to do is make Israel totally independent of the United States. One day the US may not back Israel so Israel has to be prepared.

Showing true American values, the new Pope has declared that ketchup on hot dogs is now a sin.

When the Biden administration drained the strategic petroleum reserves to lower prices before the election, they did over $100 million dollars in structural damage.

After telling President Trump they were going to be good, the Houthi's sent a missile to Israel. Bye-bye Iran.

Trump has mediated a ceasefire between India and Pakistan.

Dan Bongino: Director Patel spends 10-12 hours per day in the office attending meetings. The media is lying.

Israel just reclaimed the body of a soldier who fell in Lebanon in 1982. The body was in the cemetery in Lebanon and the Israelis had to secretly get it out. Israel leaves no one behind.

Woman on a plane is asked to change seats. She says no. That's end of story. Except, she has 500,000 TikTok views.

Medicaid Cuts:

For the federal government to make Medicaid cuts, they have to explain Medicaid. It is healthy people who could work and don't. Many people think it's disabled people, but that is a small subgroup.

They have no deductibles, no copays, and everything is covered, 100 percent, if you can find a doctor. Obamacare has an almost $10,000 deductible. Why not have people on Medicaid pay something for services.

They're cutting ACA as part of the Medicaid cuts. That's okay. We have to allow three year short-term major medical plans.

Unfortunately the blue states don't allow this. There needs to be Obamacare alternatives out there.

Why I don't believe in Health Shares? Because Health Shares need no money to get started? Many Health Shares pay out for some years and then just stop paying because it has no money? When a Health Share runs out of money, it does not pay claims, but continues to collect money.

If a liberal from 1960 showed up in 2025 he would be considered a conservative. If a liberal from 2025 showed up in 1960 he'd be considered a dangerous lunatic.

We need a law that if you file a complaint against a police officer and it's not true, it's a misdemeanor, and you go to jail for 60 days.

Meme of the Week:

Liberal: If removing all guns saves just one life it's worth it. Conservative: Then if deporting all illegal saves just one life, would that be worth it?
