Trump's birthright citizenship case is not about birthright citizenship. They are not asking the justices about the constitutionality of birthright citizenship. They're asking about lower court injunctions. If Trump can get a stop to the lower court injunctions, it's a big win.

Inflation is at the lowest rate since February of 2021.

Only in Israel...You're supermarket order arrives and there's a siren. You run out of the house to make sure the Arab drivers come in to your bomb shelter.

In 1939, pre-Holocaust, there were 16.6 million Jews worldwide.

Now – 86 years later - there are 15.8 million Jews worldwide.

That's what a genocide looks like.

Mark Cuban who owns an online pharmacy said that Trump's EO on drug pricing could save hundreds of billions of dollars.

Some would suggest that Trump should have put strings attached to the deals in Saudi. But Trump is also very gracious guest in the social settings and puts things in the light that gets the most applause in the room. I am sure behind the scenes, he has an agreement with the Saudis on the Abraham Accords.

Gavin Newsom just proposed a $100 per month premium for Medi-Cal for illegals 19 and up. This is the first step to people on Medicaid paying something.

When someone says that you're a man and cannot have an opinion about abortion, tell them that you believe you have a uterus and therefore you can opine as much as you want.

When Donald Trump left the stage in Saudi Arabia, they played YMCA. 10 years ago they may have thrown The Village People off of the building, but now they're playing Trump's theme song.

How many deaths does it take for a genocide? Ask this question when people say Israel is committing genocide.

What is wrong with you people. If Trump accepts the Qatar plane, they're going to cut out all the insides to make it work for Air Force One. There will not be anything movable that they will not have been checked out and probably replaced. In other words, they're not getting a flying palace. They are getting a shell of a plane.

The negotiations for the $400 million dollar plane in Qatar was started by Joe Biden.

In the '50s when kids would play on 15 ft monkey bars, parents said: "If you fall and break your neck, don't come crying to me. "

Today parents wait to sue the State, County and School District if you fall off a 2 ft sliding pond.

Having run a maternity center, I always told new dads in the first month or so to go to work. They say, "What about staying home and bonding?" I say " The first two weeks her mother is there. The next two weeks, your mother is there.

There is no place for you. Go to work."

Those that went to work were much happier.

On October 7th almost every house in Gaza had weapons hidden in it.

The Republicans voted down Trump's tax package. Let's vote out the RINO's was your response. Keep your pants on. They will work it out. It's all part of the sausage

Is the world as Anti-Semitic as the media makes it? Yuval Raphael received 297 televotes to finish first in Eurovision. By contrast, Austria's finalists got only 178 televotes. It was the professional jury that gave the votes to Austria.

Which tells you the world doesn't hate Jews. The people in power hate Jews.

I want to point out that one of the differences between Democrats and Republicans is Republicans pick their nominee and Democrats don't. The insiders didn't want Trump, but the people did and that explains everything.

The government had a $258 billion surplus for the month of April. It doesn't cut the deficit but it is a good sign.

It's the highest amount ever recorded.

Many would like to see the government cover Ozempic and other weight loss drugs.

But this would be go against RFK Jr. who is all for eating less, exercising more and losing weight.

The House Rules Committee advanced the Big Beautiful bill. I told you the bill will get done. Don't let your panties get twisted.

Watching Democrats discuss Joe Biden's health, it's really simple. Every single Republican in the entire United States knew that you guys were lying to us. End of story.

Miami-Dade County Florida, which was a really blue area has now got a Republican advantage in voter registration

by 23,600 votes.

We all know Biden's cancer diagnosis was a distraction from the Hur tapes.

Launch the investigation of who was running the country and the media cover up. As part of the investigation, Interview reporters from all over the country. Do not keep it in Washington.

Dinesh D'Souza says: " In 1860, the year of the civil war, no Republican owned a slave. All the slaves in the United States were owned by Democrats."

Therefore only Democrats should pay reparations.

Under Trump, the FDA is finally doing it right. COVID vaccines will only be approved for people over age

65 and individuals with conditions like asthma, diabetes, obesity, etc. Had these people been in charge the last time, alot more people would be alive or would not be having problems.

Main legislature, Laurel Libby by a 7-2 SCOTUS ruling, has made her censure ILLEGAL. This is a big win for the first amendment and Laurel.

The US has put a visa ban on India travel agents for facilitating illegal migration This is America playing hardball.

An Insider Advantage poll shows President Trump with a job approval rating of 55% approved and 44% disapprove.

The Senate passing no tax on tips is a trap. Democrats can claim to vote for it, but in the Big Beautiful House Bill, the Dems will vote no, on the bill and claim they support no tax on tips.

Another Democrat Congressman has died which gives the Republicans temporary breathing space.

After they clarified that bribes can count as tips, no tax on tips was passed unanimously by the Senate.

Meme of the Week

Grandpa: Is something wrong Nelson?

Nelson: I don't feel good.

Grandpa: You want me to take your temperature or something?

Nelson: No thanks. Is Grandma home?

Grandpa: Ah, your asking to speak to my supervisor.
