

SCOTUS Makes Majority Discrimination Illegal

I think Israel can sue the media organizations in the United States for claiming that Israel has killed 30 Palestinians, when in fact none had been killed.

In 1975 a Kodak engineer built the first digital camera. Kodak did not want to eat into it's film business, so they shelved it.

Instead of leading the technology of digital cameras, Kodak was left out.

I told you it would take about 2 weeks. It was 2 days and two bodies of American / Israelis were found in Gaza.

New York City councilwoman listening to the migrants complain... "What made you think you could come here and the streets would be lined with gold? They're not."

SCOTUS ruled that the courts may not have a higher bar for heterosexuals or white males than they do for other minority groups for a discrimination claim. The vote was 9 to 0.

For the first time, local Gazan militias are cooperating with Israel and fighting Hamas, and helping secure distribution sites.

Vladimir Putin has offered to negotiate a piece deal between President Trump and Elon Musk.

The Trump - Musk feud? Was this designed to help Elon get back some of his market share that he lost being part of the Trump administration?

I keep getting these dumb videos on my feeds about people discriminating based on how people look, or how they dress, etc. I realize they are made by dumb liberals who think that we discriminate when in fact, conservatives are color-blind and liberals see color everywhere.

Kilmar Armando Abrego Garcia, is in the United States to face human trafficking charges.

The Democrats didn't know when to quit. He's been indicted in Tennessee, a red state.

This keeps the case in the headlines, which is a win for Republican's.

I told you they would launch the investigation into the auto-pen and Biden's mental decline.

Congress is preparing to do this and the Executive Orders and presidential pardons may become null and void.

The IDF military chief said: "No more taking risks. If they're suspicious , just bring the house down. We will handle the world's criticism." Most Israeli soldiers are killed going door to door trying to keep civilians from dying. They finally figured out that's a dumb thing to do, Israelis are being killed and this will stop it.

I think the President has to nationalize the national guard in California, putting it in direct federal authority and stop playing games.

Tom Homen announced the national guard will be deployed on Sunday. (This was written on Saturday)

We are witnessing a peaceful protest in L.A., as compared to the insurrection in Washington DC.

Why don't we have protests in Florida? Because we passed the three person riot rule, where three people going to a restaurant and harassing customers is a riot, and it's a felony. The governor does not play games.

The members of the Gaza flotilla have been told by the IDF to watch the October 7th video. They refused. Perpetually ignorant.

I think that the diversion program for people arrested for misdemeanors, should be a class in Middle Eastern reality, taught by Israeli's.

A word about grieving. Many times when someone has a terminal illness, the caretaker spouse, grieves upon getting the diagnosis. When the person finally passes, many times it's considered a relief. Should they start dating earlier than normal, remember that your grief is from the moment of death and their grief started a lot earlier.

Trump on immigration. He's up 22% over his first term. He's riding this for all its worth.

Looks like the Tampa protest had less than 100 people. That is what a red state looks like.

In Tampa, they went into the street at a red light, and held their F*CK ICE sign. When the light changed they went back to the sidewalk and waited for the next light. They don't want to risk a felony.

Meme of the Week:

Today I went into the bank and told them I identify as a millionaire, and I would like to withdraw my money.

They laughed and asked me to leave.

Turns out just because you believe something does not make it true.
