With the ceasefire between Israel and Iran, Donald Trump must definitely get the Nobel Peace Prize. I know Barack Obama got it and accomplished nothing, but Donald Trump has really accomplished alot.

The reality, Israel was signaling to Iran, that it completed its operations, and Trump used that opportunity to turn it into peace.

While the world congratulates Donald Trump and I say this facetiously, he took B-2 Bombers with no surface to air defenses and ran the bombs down an air vent. The US military performed brilliantly but let's give the devil its due, Bibi Netanyahu and the State of Israel have performed in a way that is unrivaled in the history of the world.

I am constantly amazed at how the appellate courts and especially the Supreme Court takes cases that are so varied. One decision is a copyright case, another decision a murder case, another decision a strict reading of an appellate process. Interestingly, most of these cases are decided 9 to 0.

Get a promotion in the Iranian military and Israel will kill you within 2 days. Not a great career path.

The reason there were no blacks at the protests, is because they agree with Trump on immigration. And yet, the NAACP does not want Trump to speak at their meeting. They should change the name to: National Association to Destroy Black America.

Women's benefits for food stamps, SSI, etc, have been blocked and she's threatening her 2,500 TikTok supporters that if they don't send her money, she'll block them. Doesn't she understand that a lot of these TikTok followers think she's nuts, and that's why they follow her.

Israel is now destroying missiles that have been launched in Iranian airspace as opposed to Israeli airspace.

I have never been a Tucker Carlson fan and now you know why.

There are actually laws against modernizing the farm. In the seventies, the Farm Workers Union sued on the grounds that modern mechanization would lead to loss of jobs. It is now 50 years later and we're still stuck with that.

Tom Holman says deportations are up to 2,000 per day.

On Wednesday morning Trump said that he is not looking for ceasefire. He is demanding Iran's immediate surrender. That is how you win, surrender not ceasefire.

Interesting study. At older ages, white people are three times more likely to die from a fall than black people. I think it's the fat content. I think the black people are fatter and have more insulation. I am being serious not facetious.

The pro Palestine supporters are supporting Iran. They are on the wrong side of every issue.

Looks like US wage growth is heading in the right direction.

The crazies in New York are marching for Iran. I guess they forgot Palestine for a few minutes.

Iran made a direct hit on a hospital. I guess that's not a war crime, because Israeli hospitals don't have military bases under them.

Disney World has an almost record low attendance for June. Disney thinks it's the ticket prices which have been surging. Duh!

The Houthis? They are worried. Iran has no weapons. Hezbollah wants no part of attacking Israel. Syria is going to sign the Abraham Accords. Almost everyone in Hamas is dead. That means Israel can spend all that time focusing on the Houthis. I think we are about to see the shipping lanes reopened.

The border patrol announced zero people released into the United States last month. Zero, it does not get better than this.

The worst case scenario in the Middle East was The Ayatollahs with a bomb. Israel has stopped that, with America's help.

An Israeli hospital was destroyed, but the miracle is the day before, everyone was evacuated.

The Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals in a 3-0 decision ruled that Donald Trump has the authority to federalize the national guard. I don't think Newsome will appeal.

CNN's Van Jones: "I don't think people on the left have thought seriously enough about what if Iran does get the bomb? That's a different world than most of us have thought about as progressives ... "

USAID is shut down and the DNC is out of money. Any coincidence?

Trump and the Jews have much in common. Neither are credited for the amazing accomplishments. Both are blamed for everything bad that happens.

I want to make my position clear. I have said since the start of the Israeli war, Trump is going to use the B-2 bombers and bomb the nuclear plants.

One of the things about the Israel - Iran war is the misinformation. I watch TikTok videos, which show Israel being destroyed by Iran. The amount of disinformation is incredible and fabricated.

Pete Hegseth did a great job firing the leakers. The reporters are saying there were no leaks on the American bombing of Iran.

In Israel they were singing God Bless America on Saturday night.

A bomb shelter in the building seems to be really great way to meet your neighbors. We should have them here.

I guess Trump isn't a taco after all.

Thomas Massie is a Republican that co-sponsored the resolution for the War Powers Act on Trump. Not one piece of legislation sponsored by Massey has ever passed Congress.

Since October 7th 2023, Israel has lost 900 soldiers. What Donald Trump has done means those deaths are not in vain.

Trump's promise was to start no new wars. He did not say he will not end them.

The only rational Democrat? The guy with the stroke.... Senator Fetterman.

An Iranian woman says to an orthodox Jew: " I love Bibi Netanyahu." Story: She's from Persia and fled in 1986 with the two daughters. They were wealthy in Iran, but she left with nothing. She came to the United States with no money, no hope and no joy. This is what the Islamic regime brought to Iran. But with tears, she praised Israel and the Jewish people. They're the only ones who understood how despicable the Ayatollahs are and the destruction they have brought to the world.

Now we add to the story: Donald Trump and we have a beautiful story to tell. Am Yisroel Chai..... The children of Israel live.

Palestinian girl does DNA test on herself and finds she is Lebanese and Jordanian. No Palestine, whatsoever. Her conclusion: The test is broken. If she had a brain, she would know that there is no Palestine.

Iran had a doomsday clock showing when Israel would be destroyed. Israel blew up the doomsday clock.

More winning. NATO members agreed to pay 5% of GDP within ten years to cover their defense cost. Big win for Trump.

Even if the Ayatollahs leave Iran for a new country, eventually Israel will kill them. Israel has a long memory.

I want to remind you how the Liberals ranted and raved that Donald Trump was anti- Jewish and anti- Semitic. Do you think he has put that to bed yet?

When the Jewish people say: "NEVER AGAIN." They mean it.

I can't believe that a man that worked at McDonald's, would save the world.

The so called experts have predicted a war that would never end. "The War is Over."

Meme of the Week:

Trump : I want to deport 11 million illegals and two puppies. Media : Two puppies?? Why?? Trump: See, nobody cares about the illegals.

Bonus Meme of the Week:

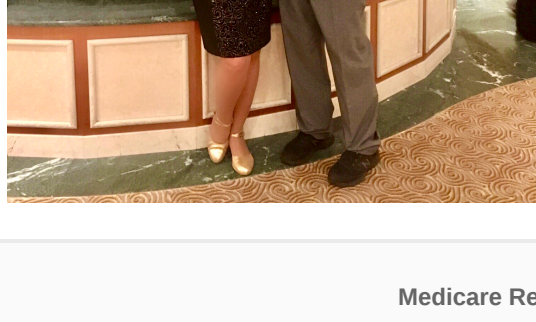

Liberals having to find an Iranian flag, to replace the Palestinian flag, which replaced the Mexican flag, which replaced the Ukrainian flag, which replaced the Trans flag.
