Senator Kennedy, Louisiana:
“I believe in teamwork, it gives you somebody to blame.”

There is no statue of limitations on citizenship fraud. The Department of Justice is now seriously prioritizing case of stripping citizenship from citizens. Of course they do get individual due process.

This is the end of the world if you listen to liberal media. I guess I forgot Joe Biden was using executive orders to get rid of student loans.

Home Depot's investing billions of dollars in technology because labor is no longer cheap, as immigration issues have cut the supply of cheap labor.

So AOC is not from the Bronx. She's from the suburbs and her high school nickname was " Sandy ." How cute!
This may be enough to cost her the Democratic primary.

Marijuana is much more dangerous than people originally thought. It is toxic to the heart and the brain.

There is solution to growing old and that is dying young.

You noticed when Trump gives a press conference there's no aid or Easter Bunny pulling him away.

I'm not sure Trump should have attacked Tom Tillis from North Carolina. It is a relatively safe seat and now we have to defend in a purple state. They have a Democratic Governor and a Democrat Senator. Why do we give away safe seats?

The good news that Lara Trump will probably be the candidate, and she will have no real opposition in the primary. She should win it hands down. She did a great job at the at the RNC.

I'm so old I can remember when the extreme antisemites were the goons with the shaved heads. Now they are vegans who enjoy avocado toast.

The L.A. City council has passed the minimum wage increase to raise the wage to $30 an hour by 2028.

Waffle House has announced it has ended its 50 cent surcharge on eggs. More winning.

Susan Collins is in a reddish purple swing state which is mostly blue. If they don't need her vote, then she votes against Trump to try to keep her seat in 2026. This is good politics. If they needed her vote, she would have been on board.

Just met a Republican candidate for a congressional seat. At this time I'll keep him anonymous. I said: "You don't have a good chance of winning." He decided I'm not worth talking to. One day I might give you his name, Hakeem Jeffries is doing a mini filibuster which the party leaders have a right to do as he is the Minority Leader. Of course, everybody wants to go home for July 4th and has to wait for him, so when he is done, he won't be all that popular.

On the other hand Republicans kept the vote open all night looking for the votes, so this is how Washington plays these stupid games.

With Jeffries speaking, they keep three rows behind him full with about six congress-people per row. When they get tired, they are switched out. The rest of the chamber is empty.

I do not handle auto insurance, but the biggest lie is that 80% of the insurance premium goes to the insurance agent's pocket. It's more like 15%. All those commercials are designed to get you to give up your information, rather then quote auto insurance.
Deal with the major companies websites and not with the people that claim to represent a lot of companies, unless you are dealing in person.

Big changes to the ACA from the Trump administration. If you owe back premiums, you will not be able to buy new insurance. Also they will not take your word for your income, it will have to be proven.

Also in 2026, DACA recipients will be ineligible for Obamacare subsidies.

By Trump getting the Big Beautiful Bill by July 4th, he is seen as having strength and momentum. In his first term, the tax cuts came in December and he was seen as weak.

This is major. Qatar has ordered Hamas officials in Doha to hand over their personal weapons. This sends support for the broader push for Hamas to disarm.

The Palm Beach Post, a liberal rag, reports that is result of the BBB, 2 million Floridians could be without healthcare by 2034. 10 years is a bit ridiculous. A million things can happen in those 10 years including: getting a better paying job with benefits.

Trump took the subsidies back to Obama's levels. They were then expanded because of COVID. I think COVID is over.

Since 400,000 Union soldiers died In the Civil War trying to free slaves, are they not owed reparations?

Under the BBB, illegals applying for asylum will have to pay a $100 processing fee. It should have been higher, but we take what we can get.

In Melbourne Australia they had a night where they attempted to burn a synagogue and they attacked Jews. Reminds you very much of Kristallnacht.

The Palestinian Sheiks of Hebron want to join the Abraham Accords and disavow the Palestinian Authority. They want to make peace with Israel. I don't know all the ramifications yet, but it seems to be a major step in the right direction.

Why do the Sheiks want to work with Israel? Because the Jewish State is the strongest tribe in the region.

With a Republican President, the media blames natural disasters on the Republican. A Democrat President, they blame the mayor and governors.

Democrats are now suffering because their constituents have gone crazy. They are hearing from their constituents that they should (political leaders) get arrested trying to shoot Republicans. Interestingly, this is coming from economically, very secure white people. This is what happens when you appease your constituents who are being violent.

I cannot believe how many people say in a video: “ I can't wait until this hits Youtube.” What do they think is going to happen. A video hits YouTube, people then watch it and they go on to the next video.

Obama recommended a 3.5% maximum on what is called the provider tax. It is a way of taxing providers and then having it get reimbursed by the states. Trump has put in the BBB at 3.5% provider tax, and he is killing 10 million people.

Meme of the Week:
Boy age 4: Dad, I decided to get married. I'm marrying grandma.
Dad: That's nice, but we have a small problem. How can you marry my mother?
Boy: Why not? You married mine!
