Even the Washington Post editorial board is slamming the district judge that blocked, taking the Medicaid funds away from Planned Parenthood. The Post said that this was an Act of Congress, and it was fair and square and she blocked it as a result of judicial activism.

The United States had a 3% growth in the second quarter. This is earth shattering and proves Trump knows what he is doing and everyone else does not. In contrast the European economy rose just 1% in June.

While the European nations are busy recognizing Palestine, the Arab world has got together, including Quatar, and demanded that Hamas disarm and leave power in Gaza.

Charles Krauthammer said, “Europe has always been anti-semitic, they just took a 70-year break after the Holocaust.

The Trump administration is going after people that owe the marketplace money from the advanced premium tax credit. In the past they would have a income variance on how much they would collect, but now anything you owe, you pay. Another reason why people they have some money should not be in the marketplace and should call me.

You ever listen to these morons in California? With tens of millions of people being rounded up, we might have to push them into Alligator Alcatraz, so the alligators eat them, because there’s no place else to hide the bodies. These are the people that think they’re smart.

While the liberals are going nuts over Sidney Sweeney's jeans campaign, it appears that the company stock is soaring and they're sold out. Success is the best revenge.

Israel maybe following my advice. They are seriously considering a $10 billion lawsuit against the New York Times. Let’s see what happens.

The number one cause of increased Medicare bills is; “Being Lonely.” Dr.. Oz’s agency is looking for ways to combat that loneliness. It might be the cheapest medicine there is.

To get to the bottom of the Hillary / FBI / Obama scandal, they're going to need to bring in everybody, including Pres. Obama. Although he has immunity, they should give him full immunity and force him to testify.

Early prediction: At some point Marco Rubio will resign as Secretary of State to run as VP Vance’s running mate. He'll be replaced with Ron DeSantis.

Israel looks like it is making a final ultimatum to Hamas or else they will start seizing land in Gaza and killing the Hamas Officials Around the world.

Another appeals court is set to rule against Trump's birthright citizenship. I'm not sure they are wrong. I think when it goes to SCOTUS, They will rule that Congress needs to change the law for birthright citizenship. Remember my warning, SCOTUS can do whatever it wants.

Why does the world not tell Russia that they have to supply aid to Ukraine? That is what Israel is doing to Gaza. If Russia doesn't have to do it, why does Israel.

Vegas is having a very low occupancy rate. Presumably this is because they pushed the hotel rates and all the other costs higher then the American public can stomach. So people are not going to Vegas. Vegas will have to react, which they always do.

The Trump accounts, give newborns a $1,000 deposit for the future. It looks like they can withdraw that at age 18. I don't think that should happen that way. I think the minimum you should be able to withdraw this, is age 60. Americans need to save for retirement not a house. At age 18 it will only be worth $2,400.

I watch videos of people getting pulled over in traffic stops. They start a fight from the get-go. “I know my rights.” Then it always escalates. Here is a normal person being pulled over. “Officer, here's my license, registration, and insurance.” Officer: “Thank you, I'll give you a warning. You went through a stop sign, don't do it again.”

The morons don't understand that they will never catch a break because they're idiots.

RFK Jr, has banned mercury in vaccines. He's been fighting for this for 20 years.

Another thing I love, people sitting in jail because they can’t make $200 bond. Then they are threatening lawsuits of the judge and the prosecutor. They yell, “You’ll be hearing from my attorney.” People that can’t make $200 bonds, don’t have lawyers.

Telling Jews not to wear their Jewish star, if they don't want to get attacked, is the same as telling women: “Don't wear high heels if you don't want to be raped.”

The 45th President and the 47th President have the same parents. How is that possible? You will know this, but most liberals will not.

The problem with the Democrats in California and New York threatening to gerrymander to take seats, is that as Democrats become more insane, they lose their margins. They may wind up losing seats to the Republicans. Elise Stefnaik has a very good chance of winning the governorship in New York.

Meme of the Week:

On my first day as a Walmart greeter, a woman and her two kids walked in and she yelled at them. I said; “Nice kids, are they twins?” She said: “One is seven and the other is nine. Are you blind or stupid?” I replied: “ I am not blind or stupid, just surprised someone slept with you twice.”

My supervisor is looking for a different position for me.
