

Bondi Beach Massacre

Germany has taken possession of the Arrow 3 area defense system purchased from Israel. Israeli missiles will now protect German skies.

Of the hostages that were kidnapped into and came out of Gaza, how many thought to themselves: "I should have let them kill me in Israel?"

As of December 4th only one body of an Israeli hostage remains in Gaza. This is incredible. Everybody was panicking, but I said: Give it a little time. Keep breathing... it will all work out.

My new favorite interviewer is: the Muppet with the Ask America Edgar microphone. He is hysterical and the amount of lefties that tried to corner him so he can't interview anybody is hysterical. You've got to watch him.

Police have a lot of discretion about towing cars during traffic stops when the person is being arrested. I've never seen one person yelling and screaming at the cops where the car was not towed. I've seen many times when the person is cooperating and the police don't tow the car. When will people learn?

South Africa who took Israel to the International Criminal Court will no longer allow Gazan's into South Africa. I wonder why?

Many illegals claim to be US citizens. ICE can see if they really are a citizen. It only takes a few minutes.

What about paying people to report illegal immigrants $1,000? Would that work?

How do so many people get information wrong? The Sovereign citizens: "I'm not driving, I'm traveling. I do not consent to search." And: "Call your sergeant." Nationwide these people truly believe they don't need a license, you have to consent to be arrested and call a sergeant automatically means they can't do anything until the sergeant arrives. Where do these nuts get this information?

I was not going to publish this week but Bondi Beach happened, and I had to write something. The Australian government could not keep a thousand Jews safe on a beach in Australia. Therefore, they should stop telling the PM of Israel how to keep 8 million Jews safe.

Billions of people around a globe are about to celebrate the birthday of a Jewish man, born in Bethlehem 2000 plus years ago. But they don't think any Jews lived there before 1948.

Unemployment ticked up to 4.5% because Trump is reducing the amount of government employees in the workforce. All growth is in the private sector.

Places like Australia and the UK are going to enforce their hate speech laws against the Palestinian supporters. This is actually very good news for the Jewish community and all of humanity.

A word about health insurance premiums. Subsidies were cut and premiums were raised. Many people who made changes to their plans are getting more insurance for less money. Don't accept the answer from the company that raised your premiums. Talk to an independent agent such as me.

When dealing with a crazy liberal, just start calling them: Racist, fascist, and genocidal maniac. They will probably run away crying.

The entire press is saying that the Obamacare subsidies will expire on December 31st. They have already expired. On December 1st the government sent the money to the insurance companies. Everyone on Obamacare knows what their 2026 premium is. So this BS about the expiration of the subsidies is just that...BS.

Meme of the Week:
A New York Cinema was robbed last night. The crooks escaped with an estimated $1,000 worth of goods. They made off with one large coke, two large popcorns and a pack of M&M's.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.
