It appears there was a trans shooter in the second deadliest shooting in Canada. The statistics of women involved in shootings just went up tremendously, because the media is calling this man a woman.

The question no one will answer: You were just made King of Israel on October 7th. 1,200 Israelis were killed, many more wounded, and 250 taken hostage. How would you prosecute the war? You can't punt. You must answer this question. I would like some people to give me feedback on this question.

How about this: Let's deport people to Gaza. This will provide jobs, provide food, and give The Gazans something to do. If the prisoners misbehave, kill them, And since it's not done by Israel, no one will care.

There will be a partial shutdown. I still say the government should shut down Minneapolis Airport and the New York airports.

Here was a Friday headline from Fox: "Government to shut down at midnight after Dems, White House failed to strike DHS deal." Everyone knows the government is not shutting down. They can move money from here to there, so the results will not be a big deal. But notice the headline—some people are stupid enough to believe it.

For the Sovereign Citizen believers: a lifetime ago I read a book claiming you don't have to pay taxes. It was clear and convincing, explaining why the U.S. tax system was illegal. It would have had a lot more credibility if the author hadn't written it from a jail cell, where he was serving a long sentence for tax evasion.

I think the Wall Street Journal article about Corey Lewandowski, Trump's ex-campaign manager, and Kristi Noem being lovers has sealed her fate. I think Trump is going to use her to make a deal with the Democrats on the HHS shutdown.

Replace "her" with Tom Homan. I think he might actually get a unanimous vote, which in today's day and age is probably 80 votes in the Senate.

Why do I call 80 votes in the Senate unanimous? Because that's how fractured the Senate has become.

The Left cannot make up their minds. Voter ID is racist, but ICE agents need to show ID?

The TSA is working without pay, but the truth is the federal government gets paid for the last two week in arrears. so they're okay for another two weeks.

They're making a big deal that Susan Collins is the 50th vote for the SAVE Act, but it takes 60 votes with a filibuster. Nobody wants to get rid of the filibuster, so what's the big deal? I don't get it.

Because of the $75 billion supplemental budget allocated in 2025, ICE is exempt from the partial government shutdown.

Checking with the manager at my supermarket: women are buying a lot of flowers this year. Ladies, hint—no man wants flowers. A six-pack, twelve-pack, or twenty-four-pack will get you a lot more love.

This sums up the current state: Jewish parents will never again walk their children to the gas chambers. You'll have to get past our soldiers first. Good luck with that. God bless the IDF.

When I was in school, you needed permission slips to go to events off campus. I don't think that has changed, which means letting kids out to go to a protest makes the school responsible. I guarantee parents would have no problem suing the school if they can make money on the deal. And that means school administrators get fired.

In 1916, Nathan's started in Coney Island, Brooklyn. The owner hired fake doctors in white coats and stethoscopes to eat the hot dogs, giving the impression that the food was healthy. Over 100 years later, Nathan's is still selling hot dogs.
