Another citizen killed by an illegal, this one in a motor vehicle accident while he's running from ICE. Her name is Dr. Linda Davis, a K-8 teacher in Georgia. Let's see if the haters say her name.

The hockey rink shooter in Rhode Island was trans. The daughter said he had mental issues. The reason so many trans people are involved in shootings is because they have serious mental issues.

Men's friendships tend to be friendships of convenience. This means that if you change jobs or retire, your friendship may not last unless you have opportunities to see the person. Face-timing doesn't do it; it just takes longer for the friendship to dissolve. What are your thoughts on this?

Why didn't Congress make a deal for the Obamacare subsidies? Because it was no longer in the headlines, so the urgency disappeared. That's why it does not matter what happens today. Elections will be decided on what happens between August and October.

The problem when you sign a Transparency Act that allows everybody's name to be published in the Epstein files means people like Whoopi Goldberg get drawn in. I don't believe Whoopi Goldberg was involved with Epstein, but now it's her problem. No fun when the shoe is on the other foot.

Why do the fascists in the street yell "Death, death to the IDF"? Because as long as there's an IDF, there will never be a genocide against the Jewish people like there was in World War II, or when the Jews were expelled from other Arab countries.

New York City has a $127 billion budget. Florida has a $117 billion budget. New York City has 8.8 million people. Florida has 22 million people.

An illegal alien was just arrested in Georgia for raping a 7-year-old first grader. And people wonder why ICE exists. These are the kind of people that Renee Good and Alex Pretti died defending.

Norway enacted a wealth tax that was expected to bring in $146 million yearly. Instead, individuals with $44 billion worth of wealth left, and so there was a net decrease of $448 million. That's what happens when one country or city tries a wealth tax.

I promised you the Supreme Court would overturn tariffs, and they did. Why? Because the Constitution said so.

The Florida legislature decided to change the name of Palm Beach Airport to Donald Trump Airport. The liberals are going nuts and said that Trump's name is trademarked, so he will make millions of dollars off the trademark. Trump just said there'll be no charge for using his name at the airport. Those lefties are out of their mind.

It is Jordanian law in the West Bank that an Arab receives the death penalty for selling land to a Jew. Israel is now overriding that law and allowing Arabs to sell their land to Jewish people. Amazing that six decades of racist laws can still be on the books.

A genocide is Germany murdering unarmed Jews. War is Israel defending itself against armed Gazans. Big difference.

A guy named Tony Aguilar was on Tucker Carlson and said he saw the IDF kill a young boy. The IDF and Mike Huckabee then found that young boy, still alive with no wounds. This is the BS of Tucker Carlson.

What to do with all those kids that walked out of school for the ICE protests? Make them sit through detention for a few hours, listening to the other side of the story. I think that is the problem: "They only hear one side of the story." Make them listen to the other side. That is the best thing you can do with detention or any other punishment.

In really important news: a federal judge has ruled that boneless chicken wings are chicken wings. The alternative was ruling them chicken nuggets. Chicken wing fans can sleep at night.

Have you seen the video where the guy asks these liberal women to sign a petition to bring back a man from a third-world country who killed five people and was deported by ICE? , The morons signed the petition. That is how real TDS is.

I want to clear up the so-called civil infraction for immigration. Overstaying a visa is a civil immigration violation. Overstaying by more than 180 days is a 3-year ban. Overstaying by 1 or more years is a 10-year ban. That means that all the people overstaying their visa are eligible for deportation. Do not let the civil infraction confuse you.

The Supreme Court did not say a word about refunds. I think the refunds should go to the taxpayers — a check signed by Donald Trump in September, when it does the most good. This would be good for the midterms.

The State of the Union will be Tuesday night. It is actually the only Trump speech I ever watch. It's always a good show. And that is what it is — a show.

I don't know how realistic polls are coming out of Gaza, but the latest one still shows that 70% of the people in Gaza still support October 7th. With all the death and destruction, these lunatics still want more of it.

Two Israeli soccer teams were playing, and paused the game to allow the Muslim players to break their Ramadan fast. That is an apartheid country for you.

The black community makes a big deal of giving the talk to their sons and daughters about being pulled over. My grandfather had the same talk with me and I had it with my daughter.

My version was : " If you get pulled over, car off, windows down, lights on, and hands on the steering wheel. Yes ma'am / sir and No ma'am / sir, is how you address the officer. You do not argue at the side of the road, you argue in court. The less memorable you make the encounter the greater your chances of winning if you go to court or actually not receiving a summons In the first place."

This method's gotten me a lot of warnings. When you go off like a banshee on the cops, you're guaranteed to get a ticket and the charges will pile up.

Meme of the Week : Once upon a time, there lived a king who was only 12 inches tall. He was a terrible king, but he made a great ruler.

Bonus Meme of the Week: Marriage is just a debate club, where the wife moderates, judges, and announces the winner.
