

The World Attacks Iran

There was a peace conference on October 4th, 2023 for Israeli and Palestinian women. Hamas used the list of attendees from that conference to hunt these women down and murder them. Another reason why Israelis believe there can never again be peace.

Why is homosexuality among men so prevalent? Maybe because today's man did not grow up with: "I Dream of Jeannie".

A Christian who had never met a Jew asked: "Christians have the Ten Commandments. Do Jews have anything like that?" I referred her to the Charlton Heston movie, "The Ten Commandments." That should explain it. In reality, how does anybody not know that the 10 Commandments comes from the Old Testament.

Before the State of the Union, college kids were asked how Trump did with his speech, that he had not given yet? Some said they saw parts of it, and all said it was lousy. That's what we are dealing with.

I told you Trump's State of the Union would be a show. I have never seen the Congressional Medal of Honor given out at a State of the Union, let alone two. Even the Democrats had to stand and applaud.

There is a piece of news that's so small and so big. A squadron of F-22 Raptors has landed at an Israeli Air Force base. In the past the Arab countries would have screamed. Right now no one cares. I wonder why?

Let's make this crystal clear. Overstaying a visa is a civil offense. Deportation is a civil remedy.

With so many arrests of illegals, only 261 were DACA recipients, and 92% had criminal records. This is an amazing statistic. The left would have you think ICE is arresting people willy-nilly. Nothing could be further from the truth.

Israel and the USA have jointly launched an attack against Iran. What did anybody think was going to happen? Putting ballistic missiles into the negotiations was stupid. If Iran would not give up its hope of obtaining a nuclear weapon, everything else is irrelevant. Again, don't push Donald Trump — you will lose. May God bless the USA and the State of Israel. The fact that they are working together means major retaliatory destruction will probably not happen.

According to Trump, in the first 24 hours more bombs fell on Iran than in the 12-day war back in June.

A sharp contrast: Obama dealing with the Iranians by sending them pallets of cash. Trump dealing with the Iranians by sending warnings and then bombing them into the next world.

Because of Iran's recklessness, attacking UAE and Bahrain, the world has decided to attack Iran. Saudi Arabia, according to Donald Trump, has joined in the U.S. strike on Tehran.

When this war is over there will be peace in the Middle East, and Israel will become a strategic partner of the rich Arab countries, no longer depending on the United States. People protest the only democracy in the Middle East because they are stupid morons.

Trump's legacy to the world will be that the burkas came off.

After his term expires, Donald Trump could become president of Iran. That is how popular he is with the people of Iran.

The problem in Iran is there are no officials left to surrender. They've all been killed.

I believe by the midterms the Palestinian problem will be a non-problem. Trump will immediately get to work implementing his plan to rebuild Gaza, and that means moving the Palestinians out of there for a few years.

Therefore the problem has gone away. I think you will see the funding of the Palestinian protests stop. Everybody wants to be on Team Israel, because they have shown amazing strength against Iran.

There is a reason the Israelis took out the Ayatollah instead of the Americans. It's a legal question. The U.S. is not allowed to target a head of state, but Israel can because Israel was directly threatened.

One of the differences is the reaction of Democrat Jews like Lois Frankel and Debbie Wasserman Schultz to the bombings in Iran. They aren't condemning them. They say Trump has to brief Congress, but they are agreeing with the bombings. This will put Chuck Schumer in a very strange place. He will have to make a decision. Is he a Jew or is he a Liberal?

Let's remember that Iran killed 35,000 of their own citizens in a four day period, in the past month. Where are the protesters?

At the request of the United Arab Emirates, an Israeli Home Front Command officer has been sent to Abu Dhabi to give guidance on improving public access to life-saving emergency information. In other words, everybody is now looking to Israel on how to keep its citizens safe. When this is over, Israel will be the queen bee of the Middle East.

Southwest was known as a miracle airline. Forty people would get on in wheelchairs and almost all would walk off. Now that they have assigned seating, nobody uses wheelchairs anymore.

And the new Ayatollah has been killed. I think he lasted three hours.

I think the Gulf States are realizing that their people are not well protected against missiles and drones. I expect them to buy the solutions from Israel.

As you know, we have lost three American servicemen as of Sunday afternoon. We will not know how they died until tomorrow. Hearts and prayers to their families.

You know this thing is about to wrap up because France is joining on the side of the United States. France only enters a war after it is won.

The most important thing to remember is under the Democrats a senior with a $100,000 in the bank was now worth $60,000 at the end of Biden's term. This is the one thing you have to tell protesters, when they are protesting because they are almost all seniors.

As of writing this, the cause of death of the service members has not been announced. Chances are they were killed by Iran attacking US bases. That means that is the cause of the deaths is not the United States starting a war, it is Iran being reckless with American soldiers lives. This is why Trump made the moves that he did, to protect US servicemen's lives.
