Retail theft is exploding. Maybe instead of getting banned from a Walmart or Target, companies should enter an agreement like casinos do, and ban you from all stores if you are convicted. Not just one chain. This could act as a major deterrent.

April 14th is Holocaust Remembrance Day (Yom HaShoah). All of Israel stands silently for two minutes. They remember the 6 million who died. That will never happen again because Israel has the best military and intelligence in the world.

The Court of Appeals has essentially told Judge Boasberg that his contempt issue with Donald Trump over not turning planes around in midair is effectively over. Another win for Trump.

Why is Israel so personal to me? My grandfather had 11 brothers and sisters. At the end of the war, only he and one brother were left. If the Jews had Israel in 1939—a homeland—the Holocaust may not have happened, and I would have: aunts, uncles, and cousins... Today, the IDF stands strong and proud, and when Jews are in trouble anywhere in the world, Israel finds a way to rescue them.

We were told that being gay is something you are born with. But the BBC has shown that migrants are being coached to claim they are gay to attain asylum status in the UK. That has also happened here.

Age 12: Fell off a bike at high velocity onto a gravel road, then biked 5 miles home.
Age 50: Used the wrong pillow—back not functional for two days.

Ask people who claim to be religious and pro-choice, if Mary should have aborted baby Jesus?

Israel says the trick to negotiations is keeping the French as far away as possible.

In the 1500s, Spain had the Inquisition. Around October 7th, Spain said they wished they had a nuclear bomb, to stop Israel.

The majority of Democrat U.S. Senators voted to block an arms sale to Israel. This should be a wake-up call for Jews who vote Democrat, although I don't think it will be.

In Canada, one out of every 20 deaths is: "Euthanasia."

Eat dessert first. You never know when you're going to die.

Still think Israel does not have a heart? They call Hezbollah terrorists, say they are going to strike, and even give them time to get away from family and friends. That must be terrifying for a terrorist, knowing you'll be dead in three minutes and not being able to stop it.

There is a Palestinian claiming to interview Israelis, but every person interviewed is actually an Arab saying they love Israel and hate Palestine. They also say they love killing Arabs. The people believe it.

At CNN, Harry Enten was shocked that Trump has a 46% approval rating among those over 65. Obama had 39% and Bush 34%.

Libs of TikTok reports that 65% of Haitian households in the United States receive taxpayer-funded welfare.

With Iran stuck pleading with Trump, that leaves Hamas on its own. Qatar has backed away out of fear of Trump. Iran no longer acknowledges them. Hamas may have to turn over its weapons. This is the Trump-Netanyahu effect.

In the Israel-Lebanon ceasefire, the difference this time is Israel has the right to go into Lebanon to defend itself at any time.

If you ask a protester what Trump has done, they'll say "The Epstein files." Ask them what pages—they have no answer.

Liberals are calling for a ban on boiling lobsters alive because studies show they feel pain. Now do a study on unborn babies.

"Illegals are doing the jobs citizens won't do." That's what Democrats were saying during slavery.

I saw a powerful video of a woman born three years before Roe v. Wade. She asked a student, "Why should I die because a man raped my mother?"

You might have heard the term "Nakba." Many think it means Israelis drove Palestinians out. Constantine Zurayk, a Syrian historian, coined the term after Israeli forces defeated five Arab armies. How did they do it? "God is great."

This is the game the press plays: A bill passes the House for Haitian protected status with a few Republicans crossing over. Even if it passes the Senate—which it won't because it needs 60 votes—the President can veto it. So what's the hoopla about?

In southern Lebanon, a French peacekeeper was killed by Hezbollah terrorists. Macron is furious. Israel lives under missile fire from Hezbollah every day.

Women live longer than men—except in Hollywood. You can find many actors over 90, such as: William Shatner, Dick Van Dyke, Mel Brooks, and Clint Eastwood. This is less common for women.

The Trump administration decided not to use the traditional college pipeline for air traffic controllers. They reached out to gamers and received 8,000 applications in 13 hours.

Sunday marks the anniversary of the Warsaw Ghetto uprising. Starving Jews, knowing they were going to die, took up small arms against the Nazis and held out for about 30 days. May their memories be a blessing.

I like my country like I like my tea—full of ICE.

A congressman said, "ICE is arresting people simply for the offense of being in the country illegally." That is their job. The remedy is deportation.

I'm writing this on Sunday. Everyone is concerned Iran will not negotiate. Negotiators arrive Monday. Iran's delegation arrives Tuesday.

What do these people have in common: Whoopi Goldberg, Leonardo DiCaprio, Michael Jackson, Cameron Diaz? They are all in the Epstein files. Does that mean they are all criminals? That's the same logic used against Trump.

Israel is a strange country. On one day (Tues) they mourn those killed in battle and killed in terrorist attacks. On Wednesday they party like there's no tomorrow, because it's Independence Day. More so than any other country, Israel cherishes its independence, and those that keep it free.
