

Iran Will Go Boom Tonight

Trump realized that one day a Democrat might occupy the White House, and he wants Iran off the table, so Democrats can no longer give Iran a bunch of money to blackmail the world. That is a big part of what's going on right now.

Donald Trump's speech to the nation:

"I want to thank our allies in the Middle East — Israel, Saudi Arabia, Qatar, UAE, Kuwait, and Bahrain."

Did you ever think in a million years that you would hear a President of the United States calling all these countries allies? This is Donald Trump's world.

The United States produces more oil and gas than Saudi Arabia and Russia combined.

Trump's speech should give GOP about five points in the polls in support of the war, because he said the U.S. has basically won. This is counter to TikTok and the mainstream media.

The Palestinians now have world opinion on their side. The problem is there's no country that actually gives a crap about them.

Europe's answer to Trump wanting to get rid of NATO? The UK is having a meeting of 35 foreign ministers. That should show Trump.

Isn't it homophobic that we call it the "Straits of Hormuz" and not the "Gays of Hormuz"?

Why are the protesters not protesting the firing of cluster bombs from Iran? Could you imagine if Israel did this?

How does socialism work without capitalism to drive it? The government can give a socialist a piece of land, but how does a socialist develop it into a factory? They'll say: "The workers" — but the workers won't put money in, because that's capitalism. They'll say: "Tax the rich," — but the rich have put their money into municipal bonds, so it can't be touched. So what do you do?

Trump knows he cannot leave NATO. He can take a month to respond to whatever Russia does to Western Europe.

In California, if both parties are severely intoxicated, they are both technically guilty of rape. Who do you think will be charged — the man or the woman?

I believe the Supreme Court will rule on birthright citizenship, that, Congress has to change it. Congress can decide what: "Subject to the jurisdiction thereof, " means. As I've said before, that is a win because then you know where the fight is going to be.

I'm sure as of now the Defense Secretary is figuring out how to transfer those military installations and servicemembers out of Western Europe.

Europe will pay a heavy price for refusing to help Trump.

I keep reading "escalating tensions" in the Middle East. It's a war, not escalating tensions.

Pete Hegseth has said that his order allowing service member's to carry weapons on base is a necessity to keep the bases safe. It's always crazy that a base gets attacked and the people trained in weapons, don't have any.

What happens when you deregulate the economy and add AI productivity? You get 178,000 jobs instead of the 60,000 that was anticipated.

CNN says 75% of voters say Democrats have the wrong priorities. 55% of Democrats say Democrats have the wrong priorities. This is the split the Democrats will have to deal with.

Proof that the Palestinians are dumb? One study of Gazan children showed an Average IQ of 68. By comparison, U.S. children average 100.

An IQ of 68 is functionally retarded. Stop marrying your cousins. Orthodox Jews do genetic testing to guard against inbreeding.

I asked ChatGPT if something was "retarded," by speaking into my computer. It cannot even type it. That is how woke ChatGPT is.

Melania Trump is leading a worldwide summit on AI for children and teachers. I think that's a great idea — and get rid of the teachers.

Israel canceled all military contracts with France, and the UAE has walked away from co-funding the F-5 fighter upgrade, which was $5 billion.

In May 2020, the mass BLM protests were considered an acceptable COVID risk because racism was worse than COVID.

I just received a homeowners renewal policy for my condo. It's about 50 pages. Can't they just email it like everybody else? The only place I can put it is the trash, because I don't have any file cabinets.

Ari Fleischer said that for 24 years, he sat in the room while Presidents: Clinton, Bush, and Obama politely asked NATO to increase defense spending. Crickets. Trump got it done. And now they may have to pay a lot more for not helping the U.S.

This is how things are in the Middle East: Iran shoots down one U.S. jet and they're winning the war. The fact that their leadership is killed right after saying "we will heavily damage your infrastructure," makes no difference. Shoot down one jet and you win the entire war. That is the Middle East.

As of Saturday, April 4th, the U.S. and Israel are hitting Iran hard. But Trump's deadline is April 8th to really hit them hard. I wonder what he will do.

I hear from my readers that sometimes they don't know what I'm talking about. In order to keep my column short, I don't give a lot of background information. If you have any questions, call or write — I'm happy to answer you.

We are remodeling our kitchen. I gave the early measurements to ChatGPT to create a rendering. It was a disaster. I think we're three years away from having useful AI, and getting rid of hallucinations. It could even take up to five years.

I have been getting reports for two days about the weapons officer missing in Iran being rescued. At about 11:30 p.m. Eastern time, I started seeing credible reports, but it had not shown up on any news site. At about 12:15 a.m., it was confirmed. I'm just pointing out that sometimes we get information that is real, but AI sources go back to the media to see if it has been reported. Eventually this will change.

Let's flip October 7th. If the Israeli's did this to an Arab country — killed 1,200 people and took 250 hostages — how proportional would the response be? The answer: Israel would be obliterated by all the Arab nations. Remember this.

Meme of the Week: Marriage is when you believe it's behind you, but she remembers dates, times and exactly what you said .

I just finished a 7-month fight with an insurance company to get a client paid on a policy.

They kept saying no, and they were wrong. I gave them everything they wanted — they still said no.

After 8 months of bombarding them with documentation, they sent my client a check.
