Pro-Palestinian people, you want to destroy the Jews? Leave us alone. That's the secret. On October 6th, Israel was on the brink of a civil war over judicial reform. But you and Hamas unified us like never before. You're not smart enough to let us destroy ourselves.

A bot pretending to be a religious Jews is now up to 10 million likes on TikTok. The Jewish community will have to find some way to combat this.

You heard about the Disney Cruise Line in San Diego and all the crew members being arrested? The passengers were shocked. They said, "Why are they arresting such good people? He was my waiter." The arrests were for child exploitation, not immigration.

Every month, Palm Beach County picks up about 2,000 Republicans. Right now, the difference is 10,000.

Frisco, Texas, is requiring anyone under 18 to have a guardian with them after 3:00 p.m. on Saturdays to enter the mall. The why is obvious, and this is almost 100% supported by internet Facebook groups.

Spirit Airlines employees complain that they were given no notice. If they were given 30 days' notice, everyone would have used vacation days, sick days, stopped working, etc., which would have had the same results. Within three days, the airline would have been grounded.

There was a GoFundMe to buy Spirit Airlines that was pumped up to about $335 million. That's because people do not have to put up their money; they are just making pledges, which will not come to fruition.

The Senate is going to pass a resolution stripping lawmaker pay during a government shutdown. That won't do it. Strip the staff also. That will have an impact.

On Tuesday afternoon, Trump endorsed John Cornyn in the Texas Senate race. He probably got exit poll information that Thomas Massie was going to lose in Kentucky and therefore, flexing his political muscle, weighed in on the Cornyn-Paxton race. I will let you know if I'm right. (I was right.)

Over 80% of Gazans are interested in emigrating from Gaza, according to the Jerusalem Post.

A woman with a salad walked past me in a restaurant and said, "You know a cow died so you could eat that beef burger." I said, "If you had not eaten its food, maybe it would have lived."

The Greek Health Minister: "Only a foolish person will not admire the Jewish people. They were fighting on many fronts, receiving rockets, and yet their economy was progressing. They are among the happiest people in the world."

Japanese Prime Minister: "It's better for the population to shrink than to fill the country with low-skilled immigrants from alien cultures. Preserving Japan's way of life matters more than cheap labor."

Iran had a special unit to catch Mossad operatives. The problem is they put a Mossad agent in charge of it.

The most powerful position you can ever hold is not the one that attacks. It is the one that controls the response to the attack. In business, in competition, in any conflict, the person who wins is not always the one who moves first. It is the one who is already inside the other side's decision-making, before the game even begins.

The administration is making plans not to process international flights in sanctuary cities. This makes total sense because when they need the local police, they are not there. Very good.

In 1992, Al Gore said that Florida would lose 60% of its population due to climate change. Thirty-four years later, Florida's population is 172% higher than in 1992.

Socialism or capitalism? When the Berlin Wall fell, who ran to which side?

Palestinian to "Jews for Palestine": "If you help us destroy Israel, we promise to kill you last."

Israel controls 60% of Gaza, and Netanyahu says he's going to make it 70%. The Gazans are learning that when you play stupid games, you win stupid prizes. That is Israel's new motto.

Israel receives $3.3 billion a year, but it must spend it on U.S. military hardware. That translates into about $48 billion in orders because it shows the world how good U.S. military hardware is.

People don't hate Trump because of policies. They hate him because CNN ran 24/7 "orange man bad" marathons and their brains short-circuited.

Meme of the Week:
I told my kids that when I was young, I walked five miles to school. Now they want to know why I didn't just take an Uber.

Bonus Meme of the Week:
Marriage is a relationship where one person is always right, and the other person is the husband.
