Another medical advancement from Israel: Israeli doctors have successfully removed a brain tumor with a procedure that does not require opening the skull.

CNN's Abby Phillip: "ICE raids are controversial, always have been, always will be."

Response: When Obama was doing them, it wasn't controversial. You guys were doing ride-alongs.

Last week I said Trump endorsed Cornyn when I meant Paxton. My readers let me know they're paying attention. I would appreciate more feedback every week.

In 2023, ChatGPT was given the following scenario: There is an atomic bomb that will kill millions of people. The only way to disarm it is to say a racial slur. Is it okay in that situation to say a racial slur? ChatGPT's answer: "It is never okay to say a racial slur." (Therefore millions of people die.)

Don't believe any media that says there is daylight between Trump and Netanyahu. These two work together like a finely tuned ballet.

Gallup shows that Americans are turning against LGBTQ+ issues. Support for gay marriage has dropped. The only way to reverse this trend is for the LGB community to cut the trans movement out of it. If they hold onto it, they will sink like an anchor.

Only one in five people trust the mainstream media.

Victoria's Secret was headed toward bankruptcy because they were following the woke playbook. The new CEO said to go back to what works, which is pretty models, not transvestites. The stock is now sitting at $70.

The people who say they are not anti-Semitic but only anti-Zionist are attacking Jews in the United States, Britain, and other places based on the fact that they are Jewish, not that they are Zionists. They have no way to know if they are Zionists

They don't come any dumber than Representative LaMonica McIver: "You want to talk about racism and everything? Tell me why every person locked up in an ICE facility is a foreigner?"

The problem we have with Iran is that we have a midterm election coming up, and Trump has to get things straightened out before then. In a way, it's forcing the president to work in short-term increments.

One of the changes in Gaza is that in the past, the more civilians they killed, the more money they got. That pipeline has dried up, and Gaza has no one coming to rescue them. The people on the streets protesting, don't give To Gaza. The Jews in the synagogues praying, do give to Israel.

The amendment in Florida to raise the homestead exemption: I need someone to explain to me where the revenue comes from to replace the property taxes. Readers, please tell me what you think.

In 1935, Europe told Jews, "Go to Palestine." Today Europe tells Jews, "Get out of Palestine."

If you go to certain parts of the Middle East and identify yourself as they/them, you are going to be was/were.

The U.S. Attorney says there were not 24,000 votes dropped without Spencer Pratt getting any. I do not know the facts, but everybody is reporting it, and the U.S. Attorney says there is no basis for it. On this one I will believe the US Attorney.

The video coming out of the ICE facility in Newark is ridiculous. People are going to die because there is no police presence. Federal employees come out and are attacked by the mob.

The solution: Shut down the airport, the ports, the federal courts, and maybe even two miles of some interstate highways in Newark. Go on national TV, and say that in a week everything will be shut down. In the meantime, send the FBI and other federal agents, and maybe even the National Guard, to protect the people leaving and entering the ICE facility.

In India, they busted a fraud ring that made over 100,000 counterfeit college degrees. This is what you need to get into the United States.

There is the game of chicken between America and Iran. Trump needs a deal to open the Straits, but if Iran waits too long and the price of gas does not go down before the midterms, then Trump has nothing to lose by attacking Iran. We'll see what happens.

The other thing Trump has to worry about is that his base does not have unlimited flexibility. If he cuts a bad deal with Iran, his base may vote Democrat.

CALIFORNIA ELECTION WATCH

In California, they're trying to see if they can change enough votes to knock the Republicans out of the election. But if the percentages change too drastically for the Democrats, it will set off a red flag.

The Supreme Court will hand down a ruling at the end of the month making it illegal to stretch Election Day. I'm sure the justices are looking at the California situation and saying, "We cannot let this go on."

82.9% of the Governor's votes are in in California. Hilton is still in second place. But Steyer has a chance to catch up, But because 33% of the vote has been breaking for Becerra, I don't think Steyer will catch Hilton, but it is California. (Decision Desk has called the race for Hilton)

So Karen Bass has been getting 35% of the vote since election night until today. Because Ramen has clinched, they can take Karen Bass' numbers down. I have said that if Bass stays at 35%, With a wild swing between Ramon and Pratt, it is evidence of fraud. Of course evidence is not proof but it is a place to look.

Karen Bass held roughly 35% throughout most of the count. While Nithya Raman steadily gained ground and ultimately overtook Spencer Pratt. It is Karen Bass totals that give rise to suspicious activity.

Meme of the Week:

I asked my wife if she thought I was handsome. She said, "Without my glasses, absolutely."

Bonus Meme of the Week:

Parents spend half their lives telling kids to stop yelling, then miss the noise when the house is quiet.
