

IRAN Deal or No Deal

Some of the most effective videos are Israelis pretending to be Palestinians and showing pro-Palestinian college supporters in the United States what Hamas actually did: killing dogs, raping women, and murdering civilians. They cannot handle watching it, yet they still say they are pro-Hamas — and many do not even know why.

Life is all about perspective. I have a friend who has sex two or three times a day, exercises twice a day, and reads two books a week — yet every day he complains about how much he hates prison.

Let's talk about the midterms. In 2018, Republicans lost the midterms over health care. Democrats had a single issue, and they hammered it home. In 2026, their single issue is “I hate Trump.” I do not think that will be as strong as health care.

The California net wealth tax amendment is causing wealthy Californians to give money to charity and weaken their balance sheets to avoid the tax. These taxes never work out the way government wants them to.

In the generic ballot, Democrats went from +5 to +2. This is because they are running lunatics while Republicans are starting to appear like the reasonable ones.

What is the difference between Democrats and Republicans? In 2024, Joe Biden tried to destroy the insurance agents who help seniors deal with their Medicare plans. He was going to destroy the agency system that allows us to help consumers. But Dr. Oz, who now runs Medicare and Medicaid Services, has made it clear that the system does not work without agents. Destroying the agent system would bring us closer to the government picking your plan for you.

It appears that the person behind the terror plot to attack the White House UFC match was not a legal immigrant — he was an illegal alien. Surprise, surprise.

Waymo is recalling 4,000 taxis because they bypassed road-closed signs. This is just another step in the evolution. They will fix it, and eventually no one will be driving. I take the position that it will be safer in the long run, especially for senior citizens — which I might become in 20 years.

I have been saying that Europeans, especially the Brits, do not believe in condiments. Now soccer fans are packing American condiments into their suitcases, and the TSA is saying ranch dressing is a no-go in carry-ons.

I understand Obama is stiffing black contractors who worked for him. One plumbing company says it is owed nearly $4 million. I thought only Trump did this.

The left will tell you that Trump is a racist, rapist, pedophile, Nazi, and literally Hitler. But saying Michelle Obama is a man is apparently going too far.

The left will tell you that DNA testing is banned in Israel. This is a bold-faced lie.

ICE has a facial-recognition app that allows agents to run someone against 250 databases to check immigration status. They will share this extensively with 1,300 police agencies that are working with immigration enforcement. This is another story about how blue America and red America operate totally differently.

Is it possible for blue America and red America to separate?

The fact is, the two Americas have almost nothing in common. This is sad, but true.

Assuming Trump's deal is bad — and I will talk about that later — we have to ask why? The answer is easy: This is what America wants. A resolution to stop Trump from attacking Iran passed in the Senate and could clear the House, although it is vetoable.

Polls show that the American public wants the deal. The generic congressional ballot went from Democrat +5 to Democrat +2 three days ago. That means there is a good chance that by next week it could flip to Republicans +1 or +2. In other words, Trump has to make the deal to make the midterms work, and the Iranians know it.

On her last day in office, Tulsi Gabbard, the Director of National Intelligence, released previously confidential files on COVID. Dr. Fauci lied about everything, especially his involvement in where the Wuhan virus came from. Biden pardoned him, so he cannot be prosecuted federally. But he can still be called before Congress, asked questions, and if he lies, he could then be prosecuted. He would have no Fifth Amendment right because he has already been pardoned.

The FBI and DHS, in plain clothes, swarmed Los Angeles Skid Row, questioning residents over a brazen vote-buying scheme. They are obviously working their way up the chain. We will see where this goes, but it proves there is fraud in voting.

European football fans have discovered Waffle House. I do not understand the fascination, but they are having fun eating waffles and everything else Waffle House has to offer.

I do not watch soccer, like most Americans, but since the United States will actually be in the knockout round, I will probably be watching with a lot of people who have just found out about soccer or just want to cheer for the USA.

Juneteenth: the day Republicans and the Union Army freed the remaining slaves from Democratic slave owners.

Trump is taking possession of what could become the new Air Force One, a gift from Qatar. It cost about $400 million. I do not see anything wrong with that. What do you think?

A nun hid 83 Jewish children during the Holocaust. They all lived. Sister Agnes Marie Valois — may her memory be a blessing.

Nothing is funnier than someone being arrested while yelling, “Call 911! Help!”

European restaurant customer: “Another Coke?” The waiter puts down another Coke. They say, “What is this? I did not ask for it.” Free refills — that is America. A foreign concept to Europeans.

Buc-ee's has become a crowd favorite for the Europeans.

They also love drive-thrus, where food comes to the car while you are sitting in it.

America did pay reparations to former slaves. This was Lincoln's famous “40 acres and a mule.” After Lincoln was assassinated, Democrats ended the program. I did not know this, and I doubt you did either. Check it. Even ChatGPT makes Democrats look blameless unless you ask the right questions.

Spain's anti-Semitic left-wing prime minister's wife faces trial for corruption and misusing her position as first lady. Couldn't have happened to a nicer couple.

It will take Iran two to four months to ramp up oil production, and it still may not hit the levels it had before the war. That sounds like the United States needed the timeline to get through the midterms.

If Trump took military action in November, the 60-day clock would start. Then, on January 1, the clock would start again, giving him four months before Congress has to weigh in. In my opinion, the recess resets the clock on Iranian military action.

ICE deportations help the black community more than anyone else. So are the white ladies protesting against ICE, racist, because they are working against black people?

Did I tell you that Europeans love our soccer stadiums? They are amazed at what we do here. In one country, we have so many stadiums, and we do not even really like soccer.

My wife is Brazilian, and she still remembers coming to the United States and realizing you can return almost anything. In Brazil, if you buy a blender and try to return it, they will tell you it is your fault that it does not work. Here, you can go to Costco, return a half-eaten item, and Costco will give you a full refund. America really is amazing. Sometimes you have to come from outside America to appreciate it.

An Iranian singer was sentenced to 74 lashes for singing without a hijab. Not a word from the liberals protesting in the streets.

For the next month, every conversation I have with people will be: did you see how all the Europeans visiting the United States are realizing they have been lied to by the media? What else is the media lying to us about?

On the Iran deal, it seems 56% approve and 13% disapprove. The rest probably have no opinion. This shows what I am talking about: Trump is moving toward a midterm strategy. He can worry about Iran later.

The advantage the mullahs have is that they do not have elections. They are not responsible to anyone. The advantage we have is, after elections, we can do whatever we want.

If people defend groups that interpret the Quran as commanding violence against non-Muslims, then they need to explain why Israel is not justified in destroying Hamas and other Muslims after October 7.

Liberals are so nuts they are walking around the Reflecting Pool with a banner that says, “Team Algae.”

“You just do not understand socialism like I do,” says a college freshman to a man who escaped socialism on a raft.

Mike Pompeo writes to Trump: “As CIA director, I saw with my own eyes how many American lives were saved by Israeli intelligence. We must not forget who our friends are, and who our enemies are.”

Britain's Prime Minister has resigned but will stay in office until a successor is chosen. Immigration is what is moving Europe, so we will see how this plays out.

Why does Gaza have one hospital every four square miles? Many of them operate as terror centers, not hospitals.

The fact that gender-studies graduates cannot land decent jobs after college is a testimony to how much of a failure capitalism is. OR, maybe someone who studies gender for four years and still cannot tell the difference between men and women does not inspire confidence in employers.

Marriage is realizing “we need to talk” is never about something good.

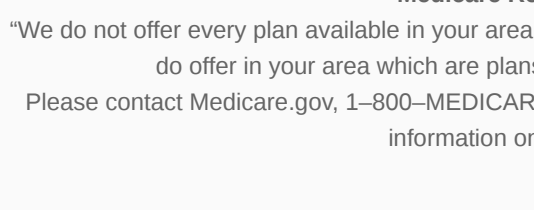

Bonus Meme of the Week:
I don't need artificial intelligence to ruin my day. I have grandchildren with tablets.
